Walnut Valley Announces 2010-11 Teachers of the Year

By Jayam Rutnam

Glenoaks Police Senior Officer Daniel Antonil was soon helping kids get onto his police motorcycle and was at Police Capt. Deidre Christine Verdura. Ann Blanc, a resident of Single Family Properties smiled for the photo along with her son. Also seen at the event were Councilman Karen DAVIS and City Manager Chris Jeffers. It was an evening out for the different families of Glenoaks, including the Trenses, Flemmings, Forords, Panes, Jacksons and of course our very own George Shult. McGruff The Crime Fighting Dog was also present for photo opportunities. National Night Out is designed to heighten crime awareness and prevention and to generate support for and participation in local anticrime programs, strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships as well as to send a message to criminals to let them know that neighbors are organized and fighting back.

I suggest you keep the date free for next year.

Walnut Valley Unified School District education have been recognized by their schools as 2010-11 Teachers of the Year.

Congratulations to the following:

Lori Stokes – 5th grade, Valley High School; Nicole Sevilla – California Prep Middle School; Jonathan St. Amant – Counselor, South Pointe Middle School; Shelly Yamashiro – Santa Fe Middle Elementary; Anna Landi – South Pointe Middle Elementary; Kay Hoard – 4th grade, Quail Summit Elementary; Norma Morales – 2nd grade, Rancho Dominguez Elementary; Diva Arellanez – 5th grade, San Gabriel Valley; Jessica Brown – 6th grade, Dunit High School; and Joyce Whiting – 5th grade, Walnut High.

Landi feels that she has one of the most important jobs in the world. “My pursuit of excellence in this endeavor is legendary. At school I am surrounded by inspiration; my hope is that I may inspire my students to realize their true and future dreams.”

Congratulations to this year’s honorees, who reflect the many, many outstanding teachers who give their best to our Walnut Valley students every day.

A Weekly Adjudicated Publication Serving all of Los Angeles County
Barn Boys Raise Money for Horst Ranch
By George Gunter
WEST COVINA - The West Covina Barn Boys put on a fund-raiser for the Horst Ranch Foundation.

The Hurst Ranch is an entertaining and educational “living history” museum for the whole family, conveniently located in West Covina.

The event had some nice entertainment and a great Tri Tip dinner. People started lining up early for the Tri-Tip dinner.

Herb Redholtz and Glenn Kennedy working as bartenders for the Hurst Ranch event.

Hurst Ranch event.

Your teen wants independence, but you can still find ways to bond.

Your teen wants independence, but you can still find ways to bond.

Princess Harriquin wallpaper shown with Giant Princess Wall Decals will add a fun, elegant feel to a child’s bedroom.

The foundation of the collection is wallpaper, since creating an environment more quickly and affordably than painting all four walls. Designed to remain relevant as the child grows, the wallpaper pattern features enduring classic stripes, scrolls and geometric patterns.

Talking Through Teens’ Growing Pains
By Janice Corwin
The San Gabriel Valley Examiner
August 11 - 17, 2011

The San Gabriel Valley            Examiner

Talking Through Teens’ Growing Pains
By Janice Corwin
The San Gabriel Valley Examiner
August 11 - 17, 2011

Princess Harriquin wallpaper shown with Giant Princess Wall Decals will add a fun, elegant feel to a child’s bedroom.

The foundation of the collection is wallpaper, since creating an environment more quickly and affordably than painting all four walls. Designed to remain relevant as the child grows, the wallpaper pattern features enduring classic stripes, scrolls and geometric patterns.

Kiddie Academy of Glendora Welcomed a developmentally curriclum their “Life Essentials” program.

Kiddie Academy is their first priority. The building includes se-

Schools.

Kiddie Academy of Glendora is a member of the Glendora Chamber of Commerce, and is in compliance with all state and federal mandates as required for child care facilities.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora joined the Autism Speaks of America, which is a non-profit organization committed to the highest standards of care, education and research.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora can be reached at 626-914-4538.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora is a member of the Autism Speaks of America, which is a non-profit organization committed to the highest standards of care, education and research.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora can be reached at 626-914-4538.

People started lining up early for the Tri-Tip dinner.

Touhey and council member David were represented by City Councilman Herb Redholtz and Glenn Kennedy working as bartenders for the Hurst Ranch event.

Touhey and council member David were represented by City Councilman Herb Redholtz and Glenn Kennedy working as bartenders for the Hurst Ranch event.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora is a member of the Autism Speaks of America, which is a non-profit organization committed to the highest standards of care, education and research.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora can be reached at 626-914-4538.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora is a member of the Autism Speaks of America, which is a non-profit organization committed to the highest standards of care, education and research.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora can be reached at 626-914-4538.

People started lining up early for the Tri-Tip dinner.

Touhey and council member David were represented by City Councilman Herb Redholtz and Glenn Kennedy working as bartenders for the Hurst Ranch event.

Touhey and council member David were represented by City Councilman Herb Redholtz and Glenn Kennedy working as bartenders for the Hurst Ranch event.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora is a member of the Autism Speaks of America, which is a non-profit organization committed to the highest standards of care, education and research.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora can be reached at 626-914-4538.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora is a member of the Autism Speaks of America, which is a non-profit organization committed to the highest standards of care, education and research.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora can be reached at 626-914-4538.

People started lining up early for the Tri-Tip dinner.

Touhey and council member David were represented by City Councilman Herb Redholtz and Glenn Kennedy working as bartenders for the Hurst Ranch event.

Touhey and council member David were represented by City Councilman Herb Redholtz and Glenn Kennedy working as bartenders for the Hurst Ranch event.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora is a member of the Autism Speaks of America, which is a non-profit organization committed to the highest standards of care, education and research.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora can be reached at 626-914-4538.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora is a member of the Autism Speaks of America, which is a non-profit organization committed to the highest standards of care, education and research.

The Kiddie Academy of Glendora can be reached at 626-914-4538.
Dr. Paul Gray takes the helm of Rotary Club of Azusa

Dr. Gray took up the gavel this month as new president of the Rotary Club of Azusa as the club’s annual changing of the guard. He plans to continue the strong leadership the club has experienced since 1927, including continuing to promote the Paul Harris Fellowships, participation in the Global Millennium, and hosting international directors.

As international director, Rotaract of Azusa, has a founding member of the new Rotary Club of Azusa and lead various responsibilities in the induction ceremony of Dr. Gray.

Dr. Petroff presided in the induction ceremony of Dr. Gray, governor, Gordie Norman and Governor Schulte, provided kind words for this newest member to the Rotary Club of Azusa in the City of Hope Blood Donor Center.

Outgoing Governor, Robert Heflin, Carolyn Crawford, Heflin, Connie Ibarra, Soly Asmer, Rae Kaerney, Harry Asmer,exual and women belonging to more than 35,000 Rotary clubs in more than 200 countries and geographical areas. Learn more at rotary.org.

Skin diseases ranging from acne to psoriasis, as well as melanomas and infections, are more common than most people know. And they come with not only a medical, but also a financial burden.

Fortunately, new medicines are being developed that may effectively treat the skin disorders that now affect more than 100 million Americans.

The more than 277 new medicines now being tested or under review by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration include:

- 74 for skin cancers, including 63 for melanoma, which affects more than 60,000 Americans annually and is the most common form of cancer in the U.S.;
- 41 for dermatitis (eczema), which affects more than 7.5 million people in the U.S. and is the most prevalent auto-immune disease in this country; Worldwide, 10-20 percent of children have dermatitis;
- 11 for rosacea, which affects more than 14 million Americans.

These diseases affect people of all ages, racial and ethnic populations, and economic status.

“All skin diseases affect more than 10 million Americans. The number of people afflicted with skin disorders that now affect more than 100 million Americans.

For more information, visit www.rxresponse.org. (NAPSI)

New Medicines In Development To Treat Skin Disease

Skin diseases ranging from acne to psoriasis, as well as melanomas and infections, are more common than most people know. And they come with not only a medical, but also a financial burden.

Fortunately, new medicines are being developed that may effectively treat the skin disorders that now affect more than 100 million Americans.

The more than 277 new medicines now being tested or under review by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration include:

- 74 for skin cancers, including 63 for melanoma, which affects more than 60,000 Americans annually and is the most common form of cancer in the U.S.;
- 41 for dermatitis (eczema), which affects more than 7.5 million people in the U.S. and is the most prevalent auto-immune disease in this country; Worldwide, 10-20 percent of children have dermatitis;
- 11 for rosacea, which affects more than 14 million Americans.

These diseases affect people of all ages, racial and ethnic populations, and economic status.

“Advances in our understanding of skin diseases and new medicines that affect it could help bring many current skin diseases into remission, and help treat many others in the future.”

For more information, visit www.rxresponse.org. (NAPSI)

New Medicines In Development To Treat Skin Disease

Skin diseases ranging from acne to psoriasis, as well as melanomas and infections, are more common than most people know. And they come with not only a medical, but also a financial burden.

Fortunately, new medicines are being developed that may effectively treat the skin disorders that now affect more than 100 million Americans.

The more than 277 new medicines now being tested or under review by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration include:

- 74 for skin cancers, including 63 for melanoma, which affects more than 60,000 Americans annually and is the most common form of cancer in the U.S.;
- 41 for dermatitis (eczema), which affects more than 7.5 million people in the U.S. and is the most prevalent auto-immune disease in this country; Worldwide, 10-20 percent of children have dermatitis;
- 11 for rosacea, which affects more than 14 million Americans.

These diseases affect people of all ages, racial and ethnic populations, and economic status.

“Advances in our understanding of skin diseases and new medicines that affect it could help bring many current skin diseases into remission, and help treat many others in the future.”

For more information, visit www.rxresponse.org. (NAPSI)
Glenmorea Woman's Club Donates Food Supplies to Shepherd's Pantry

By Joan Hallidy

GLENDORA - One of the Glenmorea Woman's Club's year-round service projects is donating canned goods and packaged food items to the Shepherd's Pantry in Glendora to help those in need in the community and nearby cities.

During the year, October through June, Glenmorea Woman's Club members donate food supplies at their monthly club meetings. During the summer months when the Club is not holding meetings, the club provides financial assistance for the purchase of food items.

In addition to donating food supplies, they also donate children's and men's clothing and shoes.

For more information about the Club call (626) 335-7010 or visit its website at www.glenmoreawomansclub.org.

For more information about Shepherd's Pantry located at 657 E. Arrow Highway in Glendora and the times and days for collection and distribution, call (626) 852-7630.

National Night Out 2011

By Joan Schmidt Clayton

MONROVIA - What exactly is National Night Out? This event, sponsored by the National Association of Town Watch (NATW), is America's Night Out against crime! This year Tuesday, August 2, marked the 26th year.

Why did this evening begin? The event took place at NATW: a non-profit, crime prevention organization working with crime watch groups to coordinate and mobilize law enforcement agencies across the country.

Its network includes over 6500 crime, drug and violence prevention organizations! In 1984, NATW Executive Director Matt A. Paquin led a national high-profile, high-impact type of program across the country. In 1984, only 7% of residents participated in "crime watch community programs." Paquin proposed a national program coordinated by local crime agencies and organizations. The big difference was it would involve entire communities at one time.

The first National Night Out was held in 1984. That year 400 communities in 25 states participated. The event has increased to 37 million last year.

This year, 7010 or visit its website at www.glenmoreawomansclub.org.

Thief Rocks West Covina with Concert

By Jayam Rutnam

GLENDORA - The best table in the house was reserved for the Camou family of Glendora. Three generations of Camou got together as they often do and wished Marian many more birthdays while singing the Birthday song. It was reserved for the Camou family to celebrate the landmark birthday of the very active, very agile and very beautiful Marian Camou of Glendora. The event was like winking at a girl in the dark. You know what you are doing, but nobody else does.

By Joan Schmidt Clayton

MONROVIA - What exactly is National Night Out? This event, sponsored by the National Association of Town Watch (NATW) is America's Night Out against crime! This year Tuesday, August 2, marked the 26th year.

Why did this evening begin? The event took place at NATW: a non-profit, crime prevention organization working with crime watch groups to coordinate and mobilize law enforcement agencies across the country.

Its network includes over 6500 crime, drug and violence prevention organizations! In 1984, NATW Executive Director Matt A. Paquin led a national high-profile, high-impact type of program across the country. In 1984, only 7% of residents participated in "crime watch community programs." Paquin proposed a national program coordinated by local crime agencies and organizations. The big difference was it would involve entire communities at one time.

The first National Night Out was held in 1984. That year 400 communities in 25 states participated. The event has increased to 37 million last year.

This year, 7010 or visit its website at www.glenmoreawomansclub.org.

Thief Rocks West Covina with Concert

By Jayam Rutnam

GLENDORA - The best table in the house was reserved for the Camou family of Glendora. Three generations of Camou got together as they often do and wished Marian many more birthdays while singing the Birthday song. It was reserved for the Camou family to celebrate the landmark birthday of the very active, very agile and very beautiful Marian Camou of Glendora. The event was like winking at a girl in the dark. You know what you are doing, but nobody else does.

By Joan Schmidt Clayton

MONROVIA - What exactly is National Night Out? This event, sponsored by the National Association of Town Watch (NATW) is America's Night Out against crime! This year Tuesday, August 2, marked the 26th year.

Why did this evening begin? The event took place at NATW: a non-profit, crime prevention organization working with crime watch groups to coordinate and mobilize law enforcement agencies across the country.

Its network includes over 6500 crime, drug and violence prevention organizations! In 1984, NATW Executive Director Matt A. Paquin led a national high-profile, high-impact type of program across the country. In 1984, only 7% of residents participated in "crime watch community programs." Paquin proposed a national program coordinated by local crime agencies and organizations. The big difference was it would involve entire communities at one time.

The first National Night Out was held in 1984. That year 400 communities in 25 states participated. The event has increased to 37 million last year.

This year, 7010 or visit its website at www.glenmoreawomansclub.org.

Thief Rocks West Covina with Concert

By Jayam Rutnam

GLENDORA - The best table in the house was reserved for the Camou family of Glendora. Three generations of Camou got together as they often do and wished Marian many more birthdays while singing the Birthday song. It was reserved for the Camou family to celebrate the landmark birthday of the very active, very agile and very beautiful Marian Camou of Glendora. The event was like winking at a girl in the dark. You know what you are doing, but nobody else does.