DUSD Launches Premier TK-8 Dance Program

In partnership with CASAs & Elements Dance Space, DUSD starts dance and movement classes taught by industry professionals.

Glendora Police Department's K9 Bo Has Received Body Armor

GLENDALE - Glendora Police Department’s K9 Bo has received a bullet and stab protective vest and other accessories through the K9s, Inc. (a 501 (c)3) charity located in Taunton, MA. The program is open to dogs of law enforcement or related agencies throughout the United States. The non-profit was established in 2009 to assist law enforcement agencies with this potentially lifesaving body armor for their four-legged K9 partners. Since its inception, K9s, Inc has provided over 2,600 protective vests to California, with law enforcement or related agencies throughout the state. The donation to provide one protective vest for a law enforcement or related agency who is certified and at least 20 months of age. The firm also provides tax-deductible donations of any denomination at www.k9sinc.org or mailed to PO. Box 9 East Taunton, MA 02718.

Minimizing Symptoms Turned Out To Be A Major-League Disease

The more American living with ALS learn about the disease the better they’ll be able to deal with it.

DUARTE - Through the unique partnership Duarte Unified School District (DUSD) has cultivated with the California School of Arts (CSaT), the district has launched a premier dance and movement program taught by industry professionals from Elements Dance Space studios located in Pasadena, California. It is the first comprehensive dance program ever offered to all students in Grades TK-8 at every school in the district. The program is facilitated by Elements Dance Space Director, Ms. Ti De Vera, who oversees the ten dance instructors who are all highly trained professionals with experience working within the industry as well as teaching all levels and ages of students and adults.

Collectively, these instructors have won hundreds of choreography competitions and have performed in commercials, music videos, TV shows, movies and more.

The studio most recently earned First Place as Team USA in the Junior Division at Hip Hop International, the largest Hip Hop competition in the world. Several members of the winning team are 7th grade students who now attend Duarte Schools.

The dance program customized for Duarte Unified, allows students to range from a source of dance genres during bi-weekly sessions ranging from 30 minutes to an hour depending on the age level.

During these include hip hop, ballet, jazz, lyrical and modern dance styles. In addition to being an incredibly fun time for the students, it also serves as a welcome addition to the regular P.E. program as dance is an excellent work out.

In the Spring, students will perform in showcase events featuring the moves they have learned during the year. Already, dance class has become a favorite addition to the students' instructional program as well as an opportunity to be recruited to be a part of the dance program in action by visiting www.94854tv.com or Twitter.

Mt. SAC Art Gallery Presents Khôra

WALNUT - The Mt. San Antonio College Art Gallery will kick off its 2017-18 year with an exhibit of works by three Los Angeles artist, “Khôra,” which runs Sept. 8 through Dec. 7 at the Art Gallery. This exhibit is free and open to the public.

“Khôra,” an exhibition curated by Fatmeh Barnes, features works by Los Angeles-based artists John David O’Brien, Rebecca Rippke, and Colin Stenrit. A philosophical term coined by Plato, “Khôra” is a kind of receptacle, space, or interval in whichforms were born and, for this show, is the nexus these three artists will share for their individual works.

A special opening reception for the Art Gallery will be held Thursday, Sept. 21, 4 to 6 p.m., in the Art Gallery building 1B. All artists reception will be held Sunday, Sept. 24, 4 to 7 p.m. Gallery hours are Tuesdays through Thursdays, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and Tuesday nights, 5 to 7:30 p.m. Special Saturday hours for this show are from noon to 5 p.m. on Sept. 30, Oct. 21, Nov. 11, and Dec. 2.

For more information, call the Art Gallery at (909) 784-4328.
Prep Your Home For Fall

As the days get shorter and the kids go back to school, prepare for the fall season by organizing and completing basic maintenance. You’ll save money, time and space!

A Good Start

After a heavy summer, clean out grime from sliding glass door tracks. Then apply WD-40 Multi-Use Product, available in an aerosol can, to lubricate and prevent sticking and squeaking.

The hands can also get a great polish from lubricatingippers and suitcase wheels, and removing excess from walls and sticky residue from metal and glass.

Clothing Exchange

At the temperature cools, wash or dry clothes and store them in beach towels, swimsuits and summer clothing. Then donate gently used pieces your family has outgrown, too-stained, ripped or broken clothes, and the rest in a bin for donation.

Volunteering in the fire service provides a unique way for people to give back to the community while developing skills and experience that can contribute greatly to many aspects of their personal and professional life. Looking To Develop Your Girl’s Leadership Skills? Try Girl Scouts

If you’re ever the parent or grandparent of a girl, recent research from the University of Essex in the UK found some surprising but important information: Girls are more willing to take risks, speak up, and take on leadership roles when in single gender environments. In the study, researchers found that when girls were in mixed-gender male teams, they contributed more ideas and were more likely to explore and pursue STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) education. At a time when 85 percent of girls who lead for leadership roles should be national priority. Girl Scouts are one of the preeminent leadership development organizations for girls—offers girls even more opportunities to learn skills and empower themselves with the experiences they need to succeed in life. And as the Girl Scout Research Institute releases new findings that confirm the research of the last 20 years, results that Girl Scouts exhibit compared to their peers, there has never been a better time to participate in a single-genre group activity such as Girl Scouts. Prep Your Place now to Enjoy an easy slide into the cool of the year.

Most people only think of their ceiling fans during the summer, but many units come with a switch that changes the direction of the blades. Switching the blades’ rotation to clockwise from counter-clockwise makes the room cooler.

Air pooled to the ceiling is circulated back into the lower space, which can cut your heating costs by up to 10 percent. Protect Your Investment:

A furnace is maintenance key to ensuring high efficiency through the coldest weather. Drivers of efficiency have been found to increase energy demand. To prevent expensive problems, check filters once a month, replace if dirty or clean as needed.

If replacing your filter, choose a month is a hassle, consider switching to a permanent filter such as an electrostatic DE filter, which can remove 99 percent of airborne contaminants.

Shade’s Perspective

Lisa H. Shade
Former Mayor of Glendora

That’s a Wrap for 2017

During my childhood, my family moved from Glendora to South Bend, Indiana, after the collapse of the stock market. My family lost everything, but幸运地, we had the support of our neighbors and community. Today, I believe in the power of community and the importance of coming together in times of need. As Mayor of Glendora, I have worked hard to ensure that our residents have access to essential services and resources. I have also been a strong advocate for the environment and have worked to protect our local parks and waterways. I am proud of the progress we have made in the past year, and I look forward to continuing this work in the year ahead.

From my family to yours, have a happy and prosperous New Year.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

I am concerned about the proposed budget cuts to the Library. As a former trustee and current supporter, I urge the Library to consider the following:

1. Increase funding for library programs and services. This includes expanded hours, additional staff, and new technology.

2. Explore alternative revenue streams, such as partnerships with local businesses or community organizations.

3. Prioritize funding for essential services, such as early childhood education programs.

I believe that the Library is a vital resource for our community and deserves our support. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

In light of persistently low inflation readings — influenced by the prolonged period of ultra-low interest rates — the economy appears to be performing relatively well. The economy seems to be on the pathway to recovery. The overall economy continues to grow steadily, with significant improvements in various sectors, including the labor market and consumer spending. Despite some concerns about inflation, the economy appears to be on track for sustainable growth.

The S&P 500 index ended the year at a record high, reflecting strong corporate earnings and continued upbeat economic indicators. This positive performance is expected to continue into the new year, with investors looking forward to further gains in the market.

In other news, the Federal Reserve is expected to continue its policy of low interest rates, which is expected to support the economy and stimulate growth.

Overall, the economic outlook for the coming year is positive, with expectations for continued growth and stability. Investors should remain vigilant and prepared to adapt to any changes in the economic landscape.

DMV Enforcement Operation Results In 71 Citations

POMONA — Investigators with the California Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) report that the department conducted a saturation enforcement operation which resulted in 71 citations.

Last week, officers with the DMV’s Law Enforcement Unit arrested 1,062 drivers who were found to be driving without a valid license, according to Chief Paul Capraro.

The operation, which lasted from August 14 through 17, involved 23 saturation enforcement events held throughout Los Angeles County. The events took place at various locations throughout the county, including major thoroughfares and busy intersections.

Capraro said that the operation was designed to crack down on those who are driving without a valid license, which is a serious violation of California law.

During the operation, officers stopped thousands of vehicles and conducted hundreds of traffic stops, resulting in the issuance of citations for various violations.

The operation was a success, according to Capraro, who said that it sent a clear message to those who are driving without a valid license that the DMV will not tolerate such behavior.

The DMV encourages drivers to obtain a valid license and遵守 traffic laws to avoid unnecessary fines and potential safety risks. Drivers who are uncertain about their license status are encouraged to check their license status online or by contacting the DMV directly.

Robbery Suspect Arrested by Covina Police

By George Ogden

COVINA - On Tuesday morning, Sept. 12, police arrested a man who they believe is the third suspect in the July 21 robbery of a Covina pizza parlor. At 3:57 a.m., police responded to the restaurant on the 4500 block of Covina Avenue and found a so-called Taser had been used to subdue the suspect, a 21-year-old man, as some of the darts failed to impale itself into the suspect.

After getting the money, the gunman left the store. The dealership was located on the 4500 block of Covina Avenue, and police are investigating whether the suspect might have attempted to rob additional businesses in the area.

Gig Harbor, WA - Sheryl Lynne Andrews was born in Glendora on October 11, 1941. Her only brother was Gary Andrews of Andrews Clothing on Glendora Avenue. Sheryl went through the Glendora school system and graduated from Glendora High School in 1959. While at GHS Sheryl was involved in many other activities. She was a Girl Scout and a member of Job's Daughters. She was also featured on the cover of the popular "Seventeen" magazine, chosen 1 out of 330 contestants. "This was a lot more than a beauty contest. The girls had to have a lot on the ball, prior brains and beauty. Those who knew the popular Sheryl were not at all surprised," said a newspaper columnist at that time. Sheryl was a very talented interior decorator and helped her brother Gary with the layout at their iconic clothing store.

Sheryl and David were married in 1958 when Sheryl Lynne Ogilvie (77) passed away on September 7, 2017, in Gig Harbor, Washington State, where they had relocated in some time ago. Sheryl has many school friends in Glendora, who would be interested to know of her passing. Besides her husband David, and brother Gary and sister-in-law Connie, Sheryl Lynne Ogilvie leaves behind her children Laura McKay and husband Vince, Paul Ogilvie and wife Susan, her grandchildren, Nick and Bliss Ogilvie, Mike McKay, Hannah and Eric Hatton, Ronnie and Tanner Stephens, William Ogilvie, John Ogilvie, Maggie Ogilvie and Madleigh Ogilvie. She loved grandchildren, Hugh, Aidan, Fiona, Mira Ogilvie and Malcolm Stephens. Other family members are Jennifer and Justin Charles, Steve and Colleen Berry and Attila the cat. "Steve Berry was more than a cousin to Sheryl, he was like a brother," said Gary Andrews, who had just returned from the Memorial Service held at Agius-Di Luteran Church in Gig Harbor, WA. The Service was officiated by Bishop Bob Kellek. Lunch and refreshments were hosted at noon by David Ogilvie, he helped her brother Gary with the layout at their iconic clothing store.

She met and married, Glendora resident David Ogilvie who had just gotten out of the United States Army. They were married at the First Christian Church in Glendora.
