Emphasizing The Positives At Duarte USD With Positive Behavior, Intervention and Support

DUARTE - Behavior, like math or science, is learned. That's one of the messages of the Positive Behavior Intervention and Support (PBIS) system which is becoming established in the Duarte Unified School District. It was embodied in the receipt of PBIS Bronze awards for Northview Intermediate and Royal Oaks Elementary this year after they began using PBIS last

The system is being implemented at Beardslee and Maxwell Elementary Schools this year. Two other elementary schools, plus Duarte High and Mount Olive Technology, are beginning the training this year so that the district will be 100 percent PBIS next year.

"It's a pro-active system of teaching and reinforcing positive behavior," explained Heidi Quirk, counselor at Northview and PBIS Coordinator on the campus. "A school establishes its behavior expectations for all areas on campus, not just classrooms but cafeterias, offices, libraries, playgrounds, and share them with everyone on campus."

While PBIS itself is an acronym in the acronym-happy world of education, it also encourages each campus to adopt its own. Northview's PBIS team adopted S-O-A-R, which relates to the behavior the school's Cardinals beyond," she explained.

• Reach for Excellence "Those are the four core behavioral expectations we have, but we strive to soar above and

Each of the schools that follows the PBIS protocols adapts its own acronym, which shows up on posters, and in other ways around the campus. All of which is a method to teaching the behavior. Michael Chavez, director of Educational Services, said the idea to adopt PBIS came when he was principal at Northview and saw some difficult disciplinary statistics. "We needed a way to show the students our clear expectations and one that helps hold them accountable," said Chavez. "It's not only shaping the kids, but also modifying adult behavior." Mark Newell, new principal at Northview, previously implemented PBIS at Hawthorne High School, where he was principal for eight years.

"PBIS establishes the day-today climate on campus which allows us to teach in a positive culture," said Newell. "It's a naturally positive environment that allows you to set the academic and social goals for your children."

Like Northview, Royal Oaks received the Bronze certificate for implementing PBIS with fidelity last year. Principal Janice Kolodinski talked about the positives of the program.

"One of our guidelines is to have five positive to one instructive or correctional interactions," she explained. "I can stand up in front of a line of students and say, `stop pushing,' or I can single out two or three students and say, `thank you for lining up properly.' That allows us to establish a behavior without constant correction."

PBIS is based on a system of rewards for those exhibiting proper behavior. The rewards go to the students on each campus, but the behaviors are modified at all levels.

"It's really about changing adult behavior to effect positively student behavior," said Kolodinski. "You can't expect the students to have the behavior unless the adults are implementing it with fidelity." At Royal Oaks, the PBIS implementation began with a training. "To get critical mass for change, I sent two teachers to a PBIS summer workshop," said the principal. "They came back energized, and ready to help influence others. That's how it happens in their classrooms, and then all over the campus."

It was also Kolodinski's belief at Royal Oaks that the success of PBIS started with it "not being principal-driven, although I support every aspect of it and am present at all of the meetings. It's important we get buy-in from everyone."

Northview's Quirk previously worked with PBIS at the New-store at key junctures in the school year for good and ser-At Beardslee, the rollout of PBIS started with a half-day session at the staff development day on Aug. 11, in which not only teachers and administrators, but all classified and hourly employees were invited to participate in the training.

"We talked to Royal Oaks and other schools and we knew it was important that we got everybody on board from the start," said Principal Jennifer Romero. "We wanted everybody speaking the same language and sharing the same expectations."

Because of that, Romero said the first days of school marked a successful implementation of the concepts of PBIS and it was helping make noticeable strides.

"At the end of the year, we'll be able to quantify some things to show improvements in behavior," the principal said. "But more importantly, I think, we'd like to qualify the experience from the reflection perspective. If each of the teachers and staff members can point to the things we've gained through PBIS, that will show ownership."

Stretch of I-210 to be Named After Dodgers Legend Jackie Robinson

SACRAMENTO – The State blazer who advocated for social of California officially named a stretch of Interstate 210 after Brooklyn Dodgers Hall of Famer and second baseman Jackie Robinson, who was raised in the City of Pasadena. ACR 197, authored by Assemblyman Mike Gatto (D-Los Angeles), would create the "Jackie Robinson Memorial Highway," on 4.2 miles of Interstate 210 between Gould Ave and Orange Grove Blvd, a commonly used route to Dodger Stadium for fans coming from Eastern Los Angeles County.

"Jackie Robinson is not only an inspiring figure to us for his accomplishments in athletics, but also as a civil-rights-era trailchange," said Assemblyman Gatto. "His contributions to baseball and society have made an everlasting impression on our nation."

"This is another great honor and tribute to a man who made a major impact on our nation," said Naomi Rodriguez, Dodgers' Vice President of External Affairs and Community Relations. "It is certainly fitting that this stretch of freeway is in Pasadena, where Jackie grew up."

Jackie Robinson is best known for breaking the color barrier in baseball when he debuted with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947 and for having his number, "42" retired by all of Major League baseball. But before becoming a bigleaguer, Robinson excelled in basketball, football, baseball, and track at John Muir (Pasadena) High School and Pasadena City College. He then transferred to the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) in 1939, where he became the first Bruin to letter in four sports: baseball, basketball, football, and track.

"It's only fitting to honor Jackie Robinson by naming this stretch of highway near the home he grew up and lived in," said Gatto. "The sacrifices and differences he made will always be remembered."

Veterans Deserve More Victories At Home

With support and determination, America's veterans can stay strong, physically and mentally.

After the Sept. 11 attacks, friends plus help from DAV Bobby Body enlisted in the U.S. Army. He was deployed to Habbaniyah, Iraq, where he joined a 12-man team that would travel from Ramadi to Fallujah. Their mission was to draw insurgents into the open and detain them. In broad daylight, in hostile cities, hunting down the enemy day after day, Body's team routinely encountered dangerous confrontations.

Less than a year into his deployment, Body's Humvee was hit by a roadside bomb, severely injuring his left arm and leg. He was transported back to the United States, where he endured several surgeries. Eventually, his left leg was amputated. Diagnosed with post-traumatic stress disorder, Body was thrust into a new reality.

Body's story is not that uncommon for America's veterans. Post-service challenges, visible and invisible scars from war, can be devastating and overwhelming. For many, they last a lifetime. In Body's case, he sought support and turned to competitive weightlifting as a positive outlet to help cope with PTSD and the realities of living as an amputee. With the support of family and (Disabled American Veterans), Body went on to compete in a World Weightlifting Championship representing the United States, competing against ablebodied weightlifters. Body's victory was becoming a weightlifting champion.

> Jim Sursely is a husband, father of four, grandfather, Army veteran and triple amputee, having lost both legs and his left arm at age 21 while serving in Vietnam. Despite the challenges of living with his wartime injuries, Sursely's victory is proving there are no limitations when it comes to pursuing his life's passions, which include spending time with family, mentoring new generations of disabled veterans, and bow hunting. Sursely rarely misses an opportunity to go on a hunting trip with friends, battle buddies and younger veterans.

> When a routine parachute jump left Army Veteran CeCe Mazyck, 82nd Airborne Division, paralyzed from the waist down, she figured her dream of earning a college degree in fashion was grounded. Mazyck's victory was finding the strength and support to finish her education.

Support Network Important

When you ask veterans like these what enables them to move past the loss, anger, frustration or fears that accompany the kind of trauma they've endured, the answer is a network of support.

"I constantly tell fellow veterans that you don't have to try to do it all on your own," says Body. "Organizations like DAV will help you every step of the way with any type of disability you may have, whether physical or psychological."

DAV is a veterans service organization created to support veterans of all generations and their families—from helping veterans access benefits they've earned, such as health care, education and disability, to connecting them to meaningful employment opportunities. DAV has helped more than a million veterans in lifechanging ways.

"Often, it's that extra support that lays the path to victory," explains Sursely. "I'm always counseling young veterans to reach out for support. It's OK to ask for help—you've earned and deserve

Smart(er) Small Business: Using Technology To Improve Efficiency And Save Money

All businesspersons - whether their workspace is on the kitchen table or in a glass and steel highrise—are likely looking for ways to improve efficiencies and save money. Discovering, developing and applying new ways to get the most out of time, energy and resources (all of which are needed) is the goal of any enterprise.

Technological advances have enabled people to function better personally, as well as professionally. According to the U.S. Small Business Administration, it's vital for small businesses and home offices to understand and use technologies such as financial software, organization tools, and time-tracking apps, as well as cloud storage services. Such innovative, next-generation technology helps solve common problems and increase day-today productivity.

Applied Technology

You might think this same technology is reducing the need for printing, but, according to the results of a survey conducted by Wakefield Research for Brother International Corporation, a leader in office technology solutions, that's not necessarily so. The 2016 Brother Business Survey found 73 percent of the business operators surveyed use their printer between four and 10 times a day. However, with the costs associated with keeping the printer running, as well as the inconvenience of running out of ink (always, it seems, at the wrong times), there has to be a way to manage these necessary stress points.

The multifunction printer also known as the All-in-One is one tool that certainly improves the workflow efficiency. Analyst Brian Moran, CEO of Brian Moran & Associates and a Brother consultant, believes small business needs are met with All-in-One technology. The ability to print, copy, scan and fax in a single, cost-effective unit that saves space, time and money is a huge plus, says Moran. Small businesses also look for device functionality that will fit into the business workflow and enable them to take advantage of emerging technologies. For instance:

1. Cloud Services Made Easy in the Home Office: This enables users to directly scan documents to popular services such as Google Drive, Dropbox and Evernote. Scan documents to

A recent study found that almost half of home offices run approximately 200 print jobs every month.

Brother Cloud Apps such as Office, Outline & Copy, Outline & Scan, Outline & Remove, Note Scan and the Brother CreativeCenter.

2. Mobile Productivity: Users can print from almost any device-including smartphones, tablets, laptops and desktop computers—through the freedom of wireless connectivity. There's also mobile device capability with AirPrint, Google Cloud Print, Mopria, Wi-Fi Direct, NFC (near-field communication) and Brother iPrint&Scan.

3. Touch Screen Display: Access powerful features with an easy-to-navigate 2.7" Touch-Screen display.

4. Business-Capable Features: Automatic two-sided printing and 20-sheet automatic document feeder add convenience and functionality.

5. Dedicated Support: There's a two-year limited warranty and toll-free technical phone support for the life of the product.

Cost and Efficiency in One

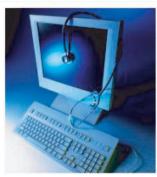

The right All-in-One device can incorporate key technological advances to make businesses more efficient. Two new offerings from Brother answer these pressing business needs. The new Brother INKvestment MFC-

J985DW All-in-One color inkjet device prints a black-and-white page for less than a penny and color pages for less than a nickel each—based on manufacturer's suggested retail price for individual LC20E black and color ink cartridges. If you're looking for more, the MFCJ985DW XL All-in-One device eliminates the need to purchase ink for up to two years, figuring you're printing about 300 pages a month (70 percent black pages/30 percent color pages in accordance with ISO/ IEC 24711 using 12 cartridges provided with the MFC-J985DW

As your own IT Department, keeping your device running is critical. Brother offers a twoyear limited warranty on both the MFC-J985DW and the MFC-J985DW XL, as well as free phone support for the life of the product.

For small business, using technology to improve efficiencies and stay within budget is now within reach. The devices are available online www.brotherinkvestment.com and at Staples, Office Depot/Office Max, Best Buy and Amazon. For more details on page yield, see www.brother.com/pageyield.

Governor Signs Education Code Cleanup Bill

SACRAMENTO - Legislation designed to amend the California Education Code by removing sections that were dropped during adoption of the Local Control Funding Formula is now law in California thanks to the Governor's signature on SB 1211. Senator Bob Huff (R-San Dimas) introduced the measure earlier this year at the request of the California School Boards Association. His legislative effort was needed after the State Legislature took action to abolish the old system of education funding through the adoption of AB 97.

AB 97, which was part of the 2013 State Budget bill, established the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) and the Local Control Accountability Plans (LCAP). The LCFF replaced the prior system of revenue limits and restricted funding for categorical programs with a new funding formula that provides base-funding for the core educational needs of all students and supplemental and concentration funding for the additional educational needs of low-income students, English learners, and foster youth.

"The Governor's signature on SB 1211 helps close the chapter on an old 'strings-attached' funding mechanism," said Senator Huff. "It's critical that these antiquated laws are removed from the California Education Code, making the code easier for schools to understand." There were two primary ways of funding schools under California's old system of education financing: Base funding was designed to cover the basic costs of education, such as teacher salaries, textbooks, materials and more. Categorical funding was more limited and targeted to very specific areas, such as English language learners, class size reduction and special education. This system had its critics, who called it too statedriven, bureaucratic, complex, inequitable and based on outdated allocation methods that did not reflect current student needs.

Under LCFF school districts still have the authority to fund a variety of educational programs, but they now have the flexibility to direct that money toward those programs most vital to them. SB 1211 builds upon Senator Huff's work to remove sections of and simplify California's education code. This process started with Senator Huff's introduction of SB 917 in 2014. It continued with the passage of SB 416 last year.

DUI/Driver's License Checkpoint | California Retail Food Code Planned For This Weekend

GLENDORA - The Glendora Police Department Traffic Unit, part of the Los Angeles County DUI Task Force, will be conducting a DUI/Driver's License Checkpoint this weekend at an undisclosed location within the city limits between the hours of 7:00 p.m. and 3:00 a.m.

The deterrent effect of DUI checkpoints is a proven resource in reducing the number of persons killed and injured in alcohol or drug involved crashes. Research shows that crashes involving an impaired driver can be reduced by up to 20 percent when well-publicized DUI checkpoints and proactive DUI patrols are

Officers will be looking for signs of alcohol and/or drug impairment with officers checking drivers for proper licensing delaying motorists only momentarily. When possible, specially trained officers will be available to evaluate those suspected of drug-impaired driving, which now accounts for a growing number of impaired driving crashes. Drugs which may impair driving not only include illegal narcotics, but many prescription drugs, marijuana, and even some overthe-counter medications.

DUI Checkpoints are placed in locations based on collision statistics and frequency of DUI arrests affording the greatest opportunity for achieving drunk and drugged driving deterrence. Locations are chosen with safety considerations for the officers and the public.

LOS ANGELES COUNT

Anyone caught driving impaired can expect the impact of a DUI arrest to include jail time, fines, fees, DUI classes, other expenses that can exceed $10,000.

Funding for this checkpoint is provided to the Glendora Police Department by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic

Legislation Signed by Governor

SACRAMENTO - Legislation introduced by Senator Bob Huff (R-San Dimas) to amend California's Retail Food Code (CalCode) to comply with recent changes made to the federal model code has been signed into law by the Governor. Senator Huff introduced SB 1067 in response to actions taken by the federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to update the "Model" Food Code in 2013.

The model or federal food code is a guideline for safeguarding public health and ensuring food is pure, has no inferior added substances and is honestly presented when offered to the consumer. It represents FDA's best advice for a uniform system of provisions that address the safety and protection of food offered at retail and in food service.

"I'm pleased that the Governor agrees that our food code serves as a guarantee to California families that our food is safe to consume," said Senator Huff. "Most illnesses caused by consuming food are preventable to begin with. That's why federal and state food codes exist. They are models for how food should be handled and prepared before it is served."

In addition to conforming state and federal food codes, SB 1067 will also provide additional protections to those who suffer from life-threatening food allergies. It will require the person in charge of food providers to have adequate knowledge of food-related allergies and to provide proper education for employees. Food, Allergy and Research Education (FARE) estimates that 15 million Americans suffer from life-threatening food allergies.

Foodborne illnesses in the United States are a major cause of personal distress, preventable illness, death, and avoidable economic burden. A 2011 study from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimated that foodborne diseases cause approximately 48 million illnesses, 128,000 hospitalizations and

3,000 deaths in the United States each year. The annual cost of foodborne illness in terms of pain and suffering, reduced productivity and medical costs are estimated to be $10 -- $83 bil-

"States are responsible for updating their own codes or regulations to comply with action taken at the federal level," said Senator Huff. "SB 1067 will help provide this clarity. It's important that restaurant and retail food service managers and employees be aware of the serious nature of food allergies during the food preparation and service process." SB 1067 was sponsored by the California Retail Food Safety Coalition (CRFSC), a coalition of over 62 local environmental health officials represented by the California Conference of Directors of Environmental Health, the Food and Drug Branch of the Department of Health Services and various segments of the retail food service

City Seeks Nominations For Bell Awards

SAN GABRIEL – The City of San Gabriel is seeking nominations for the Bell Awards, a biennial program that recognizes outstanding design on projects built in the city.

The Bell Awards, named after the iconic bells that adorn the San Gabriel Mission, were established to honor local projects that have improved the city's economic and cultural vitality. The program seeks to recognize exceptional building design that promotes and improves the unique character of San Gabriel's residential and commercial neighborhoods.

In addition, the Martin E. Weil Award recognizes individuals or organizations whose contributions demonstrate excellence in historic preservation and conservation. Projects are evaluated based on design principles laid out in the city's design guidelines, and are judged by a panel of individuals not employed by the City of San Gabriel.

This is the sixth year the city has put on the Bell Awards. Nominations can be submitted by anyone in the community, and are due by Sept. 23 to the Community Development Department. To submit a project for consideration, fill out a nomination form and return it by email to nbezanson@sgch.org or bring it to City Hall, 425 S Mission Drive. dow, and entering the rear of a residence, in the 800 block of McKellar Court. Police officers immediately responded and once on scene, discovered the suspect was possibly still in the residence. Additional officers from the Glendora Police Department arrived, and the location was surrounded and a perimeter was set up.

Officers made several announcements for the suspect to exit the residence. After receiving no response, and having the safety of the residents as the primary concern, officers made entry into the residence in search of the burglary suspect. Once inside, officers could hear the suspect moving in the bedroom. Officers again instructed the suspect to exit the residence, but he refused to comply with the officer's instructions.

The officers made entry into the room, where they found the suspect had now locked himself in a bathroom and refused to exit the bathroom when ordered to do so. Officers immediately entered the bathroom and Shadai Elliot Alvarez (resident of Downey) 24, was taken into custody, without incident.

Alvarez was transported to the Azusa Police Department Jail facility and booked for violation of section 459 PC - Residential Burglary. This is his 12th arrest in less than two years, with a number of felonies. His bail was set at $250,000.

Bill to End Tampon Tax Sent to Governor's Desk

SACRAMENTO – Assemblywoman Ling Ling Chang (R-Diamond Bar) announced that her legislation jointly sponsored with Assemblywoman Cristina Garcia (D-Bell Gardens) to end the sales tax on tampons was approved by both houses of the Legislature and sent to the governor for approval. While the state exempts the sales tax on various health products, tampons and sanitary napkins are the only health necessities exclusive to women that are still taxed. AB 1561 would end this tax on women.

"As a taxpayer advocate I can appreciate this bill simply on economic grounds," said Assemblywoman Chang. "Any opportunity to give tax relief to the people of California is something I will be interested in. But as a woman I also know this tax is something we need to repeal on principle. Women should not be unfairly targeted in our tax code."

Current law grants a sales and use tax exemption for products that are deemed "necessities of life" like food products -- including candy -- and other health items such as Viagra®. In other words, any item not on this list is deemed unnecessary or a luxury for consumers. Unfortunately, feminine hygiene products – necessary health products that cost women thousands of dollars over a lifetime – are not exempt from the state sales tax, and therefore deemed nonessential. As a result, California's tax laws unfairly target women.

"Collectively we pay $20 million in taxes on feminine hygiene products. By putting that money back in the hands of women, we are creating greater access to a very important health product especially in low-income and homeless populations."

At least fifteen states have introduced legislation to repeal the tax on feminine hygiene products. The Republican governor of Illinois recently approved a tampon tax repeal as has New York and Connecticut.

"It's great to see both Democrats and Republicans coming together on this important effort all across the country," added

Gatto's Bill to Protect Children From Identity Theft Sent to Governor's Desk

SACRAMENTO – The California State Assembly gave the final approval on legislation by Assemblymembers Mike Gatto (D-Los Angeles) and Jacqui Irwin (D-Thousand Oaks) to protect children from identity theft, by a 70-0 vote. AB 1580 will allow parents to freeze their children's credit with bureaus to prevent identity thieves from opening fraudulent credit accounts and ruining their credit scores.

"In an era where hackers have stolen millions of records including names, birth dates, and social-security numbers belonging to children, AB 1580 will give parents practical tools to protect their child's financial future," said Gatto, a member of the Privacy and Consumer Protection Committee.

Current law allows parents to freeze a child's credit only after the child has become a victim of identity fraud. However, because children don't typically have accounts or check their FICO scores, the damage caused by identity thieves is often not discovered until years later, when a child applies for a student loan, a job, or a credit card.

"Children start out with a clean slate, which has made them the most sought-after target for cybercriminals. In fact, a recent child-identity theft study found that 10.2% of the children in the study had someone else using their social-security number; a rate 51 times higher than adults in the same population sample," said Cybersecurity Select Committee Chair Jacqui Irwin.

"California needs to protect its youngest citizens. This change is long overdue," said

The legislation will now head to the Governor's desk.

Bill to Hold Local Governments More Accountable to Taxpayer's Advances to the Governor's Desk

SACRAMENTO - Assembly Bill 1505 authored by Assemblyman Roger Hernández (D - West Covina) passed the Assembly Floor on a 75-1 vote.

Assembly Bill 1505 expands the statute of limitations by three years for violating state and local public contracting laws beyond the current one-year statute.

In April of 2014, Assemblyman Hernández and local officials formally requested the Controller's Office conduct an audit of West Covina's finances in response to several complaints from residents. On June 9th 2015, State Controller Betty T. Yee announced the results of a detailed review of the audit which brought to light significant findings, such as awarding large contracts without competitive bidding, settling a breach of contract lawsuit due to the city failing to comply with applicable laws and the city failing in its' responsibility to protect taxpayer dollars.

The audit revealed a deficiency in the statute of limitations in regards to violating the state and local public contracting laws. The current one-year limitation impedes any recourse for justice in the case of West Covina. While this is an outrage, the laws must be changed to deter and help in the prosecution in cases where the laws governing competitive bidding are violated.

"Over the years there have been many instances of cities, sanitation districts and water districts that have misused taxpayer dollars and have lacked transparency in following state and local processes. The audit confirms troubling practices that harm our community and brings into question government waste and corruption. It is important that our laws reflect strong and effective means to deter and help in the prosecution of cases when the laws are violated," said Assemblyman Hernández.

State Controller Yee highlighted the need for a statutory change in this area of law and stated, "I urge the legislature to consider a statutory change if we expect to ferret out fraud and prevent willful abuses of state law and taxpayer dollars."

AB 1505 responds to that call and not only doubles down on corruption in cities but captures other local government agencies as well.

Democrats Attempt to Restructure California Elections

By Lois M. Shade Former Mayor of Glendora

When I read about these schemes coming out of Sacramento, I become slightly infuriated. Neither one of these bills makes any sense, and shows no interest in serving and accommodating the public's interest or convenience. It is a blatant attempt to control and hijack elections throwing one person – one vote out the window.

Democrats' favorite tool is to setup appointed boards to implement plans to enact poor legislation that the public won't or doesn't support. And in most cases, doesn't even know about like restricting elections.

SB 450: Polls Are Out - Go Find A Drop Box

Governor Jerry Brown is now being presented with the Colorado model for elections in California. The proposal by Sen. Ben Allen (D-Santa Monica) would eliminate polling places, everyone would get a ballot by mail and then mail it back in or go find a drop box located in specified places. Vote on this has been along party lines – Democrats supporting and Republicans op-

Please bear in mind, Colorado has a population of 5.5 million and California is home to 40 million people. Los Angeles County alone has an estimated 12 million people within her boundaries. There is a provision for reimbursement to local governments if it is mandated but if it remains optional for counties and they chose this option, there is no reimbursement from the

The basics are:

· Smaller counties would have the option to mail all voters a ballot which voters would return to vote centers and ballot dropoff locations prior to or on election day with an implementation date of this new method of January 2018. L.A. County's deadline is January 2020.

· This would require a vote center for every 50,000 registered voters from the 10th day to the 4th day before elections; a vote center for every 10,000 voters from the 3rd day to election

· L.A. County would be required to mail ballots only to vote-by-mail voters, precincts with fewer than 500 people, precincts that cross jurisdictional lines (ie... a precinct in LA and San Bernardino Counties) vote centers more than 30 minutes away and/or more than 15 miles.

· Drop Boxes would be required to be accessible and secured and locked at all times.

· If this bill is signed by the Governor and counties implement, counties would be required to have a "plan" approved by the Secretary of State. To create that "plan" an appointed board to assist the county election officials would be set up to make sure vote centers / drop boxes are close to transportation centers, low vehicle ownership areas, low-income communities, and low voter registration areas with provisions to ensure help is provided for same day registration. (Yes, again, not electeds but appointed people creating those plans)

· The Secretary of State will be required within 6 months after the election to report to the legislators the voter turnout, new registration, number of votes cast at each center and ballots returned to drop off locations and counties. I wonder, would "problems" include fraud? How would you remedy that problem 6 months after the fact?

According to author, democrat Ben Allen, voting in this state has been slowly decreasing and has dipped to an all time low. In 2014, only 25% of voters cast a ballot in the June primary and 42% in November. L.A. County was the lowest in the state with 17% in 2014 June primary and

31% in that November election. When you go into DMV to get your license or renew your license you will be automatically registered to vote unless you specifically decline. The Motor Voter Law was to go into effect January 2016, but "complications" have delayed implementation until 2018 election cycle according to what I read from

Secretary of State Alex Padilla. If Brown signs SB 450 into law, I view it as a disaster that will make none of our elections sacred, honest and above board. This past June primary we saw people with ballots showing they weren't registered with the correct party affiliation, long delays in getting voter pamphlets, and some never got their pamphlets. The Secretary of State Padilla can't get his act together on our current system and Motor Voter so they want to try a new "technique" out?

AB 1921 - A Me Too Bill

Lorena Gonzales (D-Chula Vista/Otay Mesa) also a supporter of SB 450, popped up with this additional piece of election code amendment. According to staff analysis, existing vote by mail law allows a spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, bother, sister or person residing in the same household as the vote by mail voter to return the bal-

The Gonzalez bill would remove restrictions and instead allow the designation of any person to return a vote by mail bal-any problems experienced by the lot. The language in the bill reads: "The bill would prohibit a person designated to return a vote by mail ballot from receiving any form of compensation, as defined, based on the number of ballots that the person has returned and would prohibit an individual, group, or organization from providing compensation on this basis."

> AB 1291 would only become law if SB 450 passes first and AB 1291 is chaptered last. If I'm reading this correctly, it isn't important to allow anyone to return an absentee ballot based on today's election laws, it is only important to allow anyone to return an absentee or vote by mail ballot if AB 450 passes and it goes to a drop box. How blatantly outrageous!

With Democrats supporting this type of legislation my guess is they are not in favor of showing any form of identification when a person votes in order to preserve the sanctity of our system that believes in one person

MALDEF on the move in Monrovia

The Arcadia Weekly, a local newspaper operated by Terry Miller based in Monrovia, ran an article last week by Susan Motander on Monrovia City Council's action in response to a letter from the Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund (MALDEF).

MALDEF charged the city was out of compliance with the California Voting Rights Act because Monrovia still holds its elections at large rather than voting by district. The MALDEF letter to Mayor Tom Adams states:

The CVRA, California Elections Code § 14027, states in relevant part: An at-large method of election may not be imposed or applied in a manner that impairs the ability of a protected class to elect candidates of its choice or its ability to influence the outcome of an election, as a result of the dilution or the abridgment of the rights of voters who are members of a protected class...

MALDEF has determined Latinos in Monrovia are a protected class. And, based on the census showing there are 31.7% Latinos of voting age and no Latinos on the City Council, the City of Monrovia should go from an at large system to a vote by district system.

Council went into closed session and will report back at a future meeting. In the meantime, how many other cities in the San Gabriel Valley are going to be approached by MALDEF to reorganize the way they elect council members or school board members? As one Monrovia resident suggested, if a Latino wants to get elected, all he has to do is take out papers and run a good campaign.

And from my archives

MALDEF took on the County of Los Angeles at the end of Supervisor Pete Schabarum's term. Schabarum's Hispanic Chief of Staff, Sara Flores, a Glendora resident, ran for his Supervisorial seat. The the L.A. Times posted a comment titled Angered by Judge's Ruling on Remapping when Flores was taken out of the race by court ordered redistrict-

August 12, 1990

I have followed the MALDEF case against the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors with great interest. Judge Kenyon's ruling has removed all doubt in my mind as to what the case was really all about. It had nothing to do with electing a Latino to the board; it had to do with shifting the balance of power and creating a new liberal majority on the Board of Supervisors. If the true motive was the electing of a Latino, then Sara Flores should have been allowed to win the November election. Unknown.

Michael Moore --- His Second Look

A few weeks ago I reported how Michael Moore had scared the dickens out of us with his prediction that Donald Trump was going to become the next President of the United States. Horrors! As might be expected, MM did not utter his final word in that Tikkun article. Since that nightmarish prediction, he has produced another Tikkun piece that serves both as a warning and a remedy related to his grim prediction. He titled it, Five Ways to Make Sure Trump Loses.

All five answers point in the same direction. It all depends what we have to do with who shows up on November 8thas well as who casts the millions of absentee ballots in advance of that fateful day. So here are Moore's five directives slightly

1. You are responsible for getting 50 people to the polls on November 8th.

There is nothing very complicated about that. You certainly have the names, address and phone numbers of that many acquaintances. So your job is to stay in touch with them, and see to it that they vote. As Moore puts it, be just as persistent as do the kids who get themselves and their teammates to soccer.

2. From today until November 8th you are the French Resis-

These patriots knew that the Germans were coming, so all their energies had to be giving in generating a determined effort to stop them before they got to the city gates. As Moore put it, "No one in the French Resistance ever said, 'I can't blow up that Nazi train today because I might be coming down with a cold!" No excuses for slacking on this one

3. You must be supportive of the depressed voter.

We all know people who have given up on the system or who have bought the line that Hillary cannot be trusted, or who have been told that all American politics is bad, or who are considering voting for a third party. In some cases you may be reduced to listening to the position that since both major candidates are flawed, Trump is far more flawed and that closing your eyes and voting for Hillary is a necessary but sour choice. Keep in touch until the vote is nailed down. A consistent debunking of lies about Hillary is always in order. Some people you may know are still depressed because they worked hard for Bernie, and he didn't make it in what was an unfair fight. Well OK, but the primary is over and we have what we have, so let's not blow it because she wasn't our first choice.

4. Hillary must stick Trump with a comedy shiv during the debates.

This one is a bit harder to decode. It relies on speechwriters like Amy Shumer or Chris Rock to come up with a good line that will reveal Hillary's too-hidden sense of humor. It might come across a sarcastic or as ridicule, but it will no doubt get under Trump's very thin skin.

5. (This suggestion by MM gets back to us) I hereby appoint you precinct captain in your neighborhood, school or at your place of work.

With a straight face you are to tell people that Michael Moore has named you.

So don't rely on your local party. But if you are too shy for this more aggressive style, there are plenty o stamps to lick, letters to stuff and send and phone calls to make at your the local Democratic campaign office. But take the initiative. The best way to blow the election is to depend on someone else to get the vote out.

Well, there you have it. If you were terrified, or only slightly unnerved by MMs previous article, here is the way to firm up your shaky knees.

49ers Quarterback Colin Kaepernick Won't Stand For Our National Anthem. It's a Black Thing.

By George Ogden

I know that you all have heard that San Francisco 49ers quarterback Colin Kaepernick will not stand when the National Anthem is played at the professional football games in the NFL. His reason for refusing to stand for the playing of the national anthem is his protest of what he deems are wrongdoings against African Americans in the United States.

Kaepernick was adopted at birth by a white family. He was afforded all the opportunities for him to get where he is today. He has a $114 MILLION DOLLAR contract with the 49ers as their quarterback. This is a lot of money for anyone and he has shown he is not worth it. He hasn't performed as expected and is not worth the money. He is trying to keep his job, but is only in the running. This is what the 49ers get for paying "high salaries" in advance of their playing time. No matter what happens to him, he will get paid.

Just to let you know, no matter what country I am visiting,

George Ogden That's just the way it is! when their National Anthem is played, I stand up for the respect of that country.

In my opinion, this is the same as having Kaepernick spitting on the graves of those veterans that gave the ultimate sacrifice for this country and the freedom we all have.

Let's put something into prospective. PER CAPITA, African Americans receive more government benefits in this country than any other race. This includes welfare, food stamps, medical, education and much more.

Without question, there have been African Americans that have been stereo typed by police, but who is to blame for this? Again, without question, African Americans have been killed by police when they should not have been. We have witnessed African Americans being killed that have in fact been criminals that were killed because they put themselves in a position where the police had to shoot to kill. What I don't understand, they protests "in the name of these criminals" when these people know they died for a good reason. Simply put, it doesn't matter why, just that it can be an excuse to rob, loot, burn and riot. Perfect!

The races seem to be splitting from each other because of this. The action of Kaepernick of disrespecting our country, citizens and our veterans doesn't mend anything but simply adds fuel to hate and racism is this country.

I will put it this way, Kaepernick, we need people that will help heal, not you or your

LA VERNE - Have a connection to the Haynes Family of Programs in La Verne? The Haynes Family is looking for former staff members, current and former volunteers, alumni and their families to attend its 70th anniversary reunion celebration next month on campus featuring international dining stations, games and prizes, a water slide, a caricature artist, a photo booth and, of course, Richard the Magician.

Kicking off at 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 14 with an alumni reunion, the campuswide celebration - with a stroll down memory lane and guided campus tours - gets under way at 4 p.m. at the Haynes facilities, located at 233 West Baseline Road, La Verne.

RSVP's are requested no later than Sept. 7 by calling (909) 593-2581 or by e-mail at dev@leroyhaynes.org.

What went unnoticed, however, was the U-6 rate of 9.7% vs. the headline U-3 number of 4.9%. The U-6 figure takes into account total unemployment, including displaced workers and those actively looking for work. U-6 is actually a more accurate picture of the state of the labor force than the government's U-3 headline number.

Not only did the U-6 rate edge higher (from 9.6% in June to 9.7% in July), but the Labor Participation Rate - which measures the share of Americans at least 16 years old who are either employed or actively looking for work - dipped last month to a 38year low, clocking in at an underwhelming 62.6% (source: Bureau of Labor Statistics). Regardless of the market's bullish reaction to the headlines, structurally speaking, the job market should be in much better shape (than it really is) during an economic recovery in its eighth year.

Think about this: the total in the labor force currently - those between the ages of 16 to 65 years old - is approximately 210-215 million. Currently there are approximately 91 million among the unemployed (although many of them may not want to work). You do the math!

Since the economy lost so many more jobs in the 2008-09 Great Recession than in prior recessions, it has taken longer to get back to the pre-recession growth arc. This slow recovery is why there have been so many naysayers that have been so wrong about the current bull market's sustainability.

Due to slow growth around the world, record lows for interest rates, record amounts of stock buy-backs, central bank stimulus, and low inflation risk, we have seen a wave of risk capital fueling higher equity prices in U.S. markets. That is why there may appear to be more room for the market to run, with dividend growth stocks being the lead draft horse. Stocks that throw off attractive yields within the technology, aerospace, and healthcare sectors fared best last week with Friday's big gain in the financial, materials, and industrial sectors providing some much-needed breadth to add technical support to the recent breakout.

The first half of 2016 was characterized by narrow leadership as consumer staples, utilities, REITs, bonds, and consumer discretionary seemed (at first) to be the only game in town. Now, we see some early signs of riskon capital searching desperately for sectors and stocks that have lagged, figuring that in a rising market that just broke out of a 14-month trading range, "all boats will float higher." However, chasing whatever hasn't moved can be dangerous to one's financial health. All dogs don't hunt equally well.

The good news from the Labor Department has investors and traders piling into cyclical sectors, but three factors at work here need to be considered in light of the jobs data: (1) The renewed weakness in the energy markets, (2) the lower revision for GDP, and (3) a ho-hum earnings season that has yet to im-

Either investors are putting the cart before the horse or 2017 is going to be a major earnings story for the heavy-metal stocks. Only time will tell. Bear in mind that several leading cyclical stocks with hefty dividend yields are not generating enough earnings to support those payouts, so they are instead issuing debt, hoping to see some earnings recovery before they are forced to cut their dividends.

With that said, the market is taking the "glass half full "approach as cash on the sidelines is being put to work, resulting in the Dow, S&P 500, Nasdaq, and Russell 2000 all building on the July rally and setting record highs during the month. Now, I would like to see better retail numbers to reflect the improved jobs data, turning the slack GDP rate of 1.2% for the second quarter into a distant memory after a nice year-end rally that will make 2016 a better year than the majority of investors would have expected last January.

INVESTORS TAKE NOTE

Stock market volatility has again picked up. That would not normally be noteworthy, except it marked the end of the quietest period in US stocks in 21 years. As the WSJ notes, only five of the past 30 days saw the S&P 500 move more than 0.5% in either direction. The unusually quiet period is even more remarkable as it follows years of unusual volatility. The paper notes prior periods of very low volatility were in the summer of 2014, which ended with panic selling in October; early 2011, before S&P stripped the US of its triple-A status to protest a Congressional budget battle; and January 2007, before two Bear Stearns hedge funds collapsed, marking the start of the credit crunch.

Periods of low volatility indicate a lack of market-moving surprises. They can linger for months and end only when something catches investors looking the wrong way. In other words, this is not a sell signal in the traditional sense. It does, however, indicate a lack of surprises in the past month all the more remarkable given the nonstop barrage of crazy events pummeling investments since 2007. Before buying stocks in this environment, investors should ask themselves if they think the craziness is over. If not, the market is likely due for a correction.

September is Life Insurance Awareness Month . . .

... established in 2004 by the U.S. House of Representatives. During the Olympics 2016, we all saw the commercials showing folks doing anything to avoid calling for a life insurance quote. Since you are reading this right now, it's not too late for you. Use this Life Insurance Awareness month of September as your incentive to get it done.

After going online for a free life-insurance quote, I was flooded with calls from agents ready to sell me a policy. How can I find an agent who will just honestly give me the facts, and assure me that they won't try to sell me something I don't need?

An ethical agent will take a look at your current policy, listen to what you want, answer your questions, and supply you with all the information you'd like so that you can make your own decisions. They should never pressure you! In return, that agent should only expect you to be honest and upfront with them, and IF you decide to make any changes, that you use them as your agent. Contact me if you would like some help finding such an agent.

Should I get term life insurance or whole-life life insurance? Besides the cost, how do I figure how much life insurance to get?

Although term insurance is typically less expensive than whole-life insurance, it's best to get quotes for both. The drawback of term life insurance is that it expires at the end of the term selected. Whole-life insurance, on the other hand, might cost a little more than term life insurance, but it does not expire as long as you continue to pay your premiums. And, if you want to be covered for life, but don't want to pay premiums for life, you can obtain a quote which calculates the premiums to a certain age. Whole-life insurance, and Indexed-Universal life insurance, can build up a cash value, accessible during your lifetime. To calculate how much insurance you'll need, estimate how much your heirs will need to maintain their lifestyle without you. Don't forget to include additional costs they may face in your absence. If you've got young children, for example, include rising costs for childcare and higher education. Yes, and the company can foot the bill and reap the tax-advantage. Too. There are a couple of ways to accomplish the same goal, depending on whether you want a buy-sell agreement backed up with life insurance policies, or cross-insurance policies.

Gatto's Legislation to Reduce Traffic Congestion Cruises to Governor's Desk

SACRAMENTO – Assemblyman Mike Gatto's (D-Los Angeles) legislation to boost the use of more reversible lanes in California received the green light from the California State Senate, passing by a vote of 36 to 0. This transportation planning concept, which is widely used in other parts of the country, allows for a lane in which traffic may travel in either direction, and is an effective method to reduce congestion during peak

"We don't need to reinvent the wheel in order to increase traffic flow during peak periods," added Gatto. "AB 2542 encourages what California is often known for, continued innovation in our great state."

Today, few areas in California utilize reversible lanes, failing to recognize the benefit that this transportation model can bring to California's roadways. San Diego has a reversible lane on the Interstate 15, and San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge operates a reversible lane; both have been successful at handling peak traf-

The legislation will require the California Department of Transportation and all regional transportation agencies to consider reversible lanes for major street realignments or capacity-increasing projects as a solution to reduce traffic congestion. California's transportation resources are severely limited, and reversible-lanes can be a costsaving alternative to lane expansion, freeing up additional funding for other projects.

"Too often, Californians have experienced sitting in traffic while lanes in the opposite direction sit empty," Gatto stated. "This measure will ensure transportation agencies plan better on certain highways and streets where it makes sense, to make commutes a little easier for hardworking Californians."

AB 2542 now heads to the Governor's desk.

What A Cabin Air Filter Does For You!

Most of us know we need to sible. change the filters in our homes but some might not realize that they also need to change the filter in their cars. In vehicles built in 2007 and later you will find 80 percent of them have a cabin air filter and its function is to protect drivers and their passengers from contaminants such as pollen, mold spores, dust and other small and annoying particles. We have recently experienced a lot of particles in the air and you can be sure the air filter did its best to capture as much of it as pos-

The cabin air filter is located on the passenger side of the vehicle and is most often, but not always tucked behind the dash around the glove compartment area. Whenever you turn on your defroster, air conditioning or heater it captures the debris so it doesn't get into the cab of your vehicle. It is a very busy part and needs to be replaced at least once a year. If you or a passenger has severe allergies you may want to get it replaced more often. A clean cabin filter also helps pro-

We haven't had to turn on our heater fan's recently, but when it happens, we will get calls from customers wanting to know what that annoying rattling noise is from time to time. It is usually captured leaves, debris or food stuffs left behind by rodents. Next time you get your cabin air filter changed you might ask to have a look at it. App provides service details and access to key resources

BALDWIN PARK – Baldwin Park Unified has released a new smartphone app that will allow families to keep up with District news, check school calendars, bus routes and lunch menus and tap into a host of student and parent resources.

The free app, developed over the summer, is available via Apple's App Store and Google Play. The District will customize it in the next few months to include school-specific content.

"Baldwin Park Unified is embracing the advantages of technology as an avenue to connecting with our community," Baldwin Park Unified Superintendent Froilan N. Mendoza said. "This app gives our families an informative and convenient channel to obtain the latest information."

The app will allow the District to send text notifications to users, including breaking news about schools and student achievements.

By October, the District will add information for each of the high schools. Information for the middle schools and junior highs will be available by November. Elementary school information will be added in early 2017.

In 2017-18, the District will connect the app with its online gradebooks, allowing parents to check grades on the go and receive notices when their children shine or struggle.

"We are extremely excited about the opportunities this app provides as we expand our ways of communicating with Baldwin Park's families," Board of Education President Christina Lucero said.

CITY OF COVINA NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council of the City of Covina will conduct a PUBLIC HEARING in the City Hall Council Chamber, 125 East College Street, Covina, on Tuesday, September 20, 2016 at 7:30 p.m., to consider the following item, which will affect properties Citywide:

Zoning Code Amendment (ZCA) 16-003, a request to change the public hearing date and notice requirements from the required fifteen (15) days prior to the hearing to (10) days prior to the hearing. The proposed changes apply to the following sections of the Covina Municipal Code: Chapter 17.62.100, 17.62.110 and 17.62.150 (Conditional Use Permit); Chapter 17.78.080. 17.78.090 and 17.78.130 (Variance); Chapter 17.80.040, 17.80.050, 17.80.070 (Zoning Code Amendment); and Chapter 17.80.120, 17.80.130 and 17.80.150 (Zone Change). The proposed change complies with Government Code Section 65090.

Pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the City has analyzed the proposed changes to the various sections of the Covina Municipal Code and determined that the activity in question will not have the potential of causing a significant effect on the environment. Therefore, it has been determined that the proposed project would be exempt in accordance with Section 15061(b)(3) of the CEQA Guidelines.

If you challenge the proposed action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues that you or someone else raised at the PUBLIC HEARING described in this notice or in written correspondence delivered to the City Clerk or to the CITY COUNCIL at or prior to the PUBLIC HEAR-

Further information may be obtained from the City of Covina Community Development Department, Planning Division at (626) 384-5450.

Duarte USD Starts The New School Year With A Competitive Advantage

DUARTE - When students and staff returned to school at Duarte Unified School District (DUSD) on August 15, 2016, it marked not only the first day of the new academic year, but also the launch of the Competitive Advantage Plan (CAP), the District's fiveyear strategic plan.

A resolution to adopt the CAP was approved unanimously by the Board of Education on July 21, 2016. This plan will be used as a blueprint for the next five years as the District's fundamental guide for priorities and decision making discussions. The CAP is the result of findings based on a comprehensive nine-month data collection process.

This included a communitywide survey administered by the Claremont Graduate University's Evaluation Center that yielded over 4,200 respondents. Additional details and strategies were collected through over 50 focus group sessions with students, parents, certificated and classified staff at all school sites, a variety of members of the community, including civic and business leaders, parents exiting DUSD, alumni, and faith leaders in the community. In all, over 5,000 stakeholders participated in the

All of the data collected was vetted through the District's Community Education Council, comprised of representatives from all stakeholder groups, who together with the District Leadership Team met regularly throughout the year to examine the data, discuss strategies, and develop the actionable items contained in the plan.

"This plan is our beacon to guide us for the next five years," said Superintendent Allan Mucerino. "It is the compilation of much study and work through the efforts of a writing team, a steering committee of staff, and a steering committee of community members. It reflects an honest look at where we are and where we need to be as we meet the needs of our students. The Competitive Advantage Plan is our blueprint to produce the 21st Century learners that are necessary for success in the world."

As a result, the District adopted a new vision statement: "21st Century Schools Producing 21st Century Students." The mission statement was also updated to read: "The mission of the Duarte Unified School District is to provide the knowledge, skills and inspiration for each student to be successful in college, career and life."

The single dominant theme of the CAP is rigor, specifically, rigorous academic standards, rigorous accountability standards and the rigorous pursuit of identifying and addressing the individual needs of students.

While stakeholders identified the rigor of the Early College Program at Duarte High School, specialized STEM and engineering courses, Computer Aided Design (CAD), Advanced Placement classes, City of Hope internships, and the International Baccalaureate program at Maxwell as examples of rigor and areas of strength, rigor was also identified as a primary need desired by stakeholders. As a result of these findings, rigor has been woven throughout the CAP as the standard by which all actions and expenditures will be measured.

Other needs that emerged from the findings included more support around classroom technology, digital learning resource specialists on site, focused professional development targeted at instructional context and the Common Core, vocational programs for non-college bound students, more specialized courses, electives, and career technical education (CTE) programs in careers such as culinary arts/hospitality, health careers, biotechnology, computer science focused on designing, building, and understanding interactive media, expansion of the Early College programs, recruitment of highly effective teachers, a competitive salary and benefits structure to attract and maintain those teachers, and clear standards of behavior, and site autonomy.

Converting PK-6 elementary schools into neighborhood PK-8 magnet schools was dominant in focus group discussions. Student safety, student support, and logistical implications central to the planning process of restructuring the District were central to the discussion and became actionable items in the CAP.

Regarding extra-curricular programs, the desire for improvements to the arts and athletic programs and facilities including playgrounds, courts, fields, the DHS gym and locker rooms, emerged in surveys and focus group sessions as primary needs and also became actionable items in the CAP.

The CAP creates optimal learning conditions despite the fiscal, educational, and human resource challenges that have been caused by fourteen consecutive years of declining enrollment and the organizational instability it has created.

Four pillars were identified that serve as the foundation for the CAP. These principles will guide every action taken by the District. Subsequently, they also are the District's Local Control Accountability Plan goals. With the adoption of the CAP, Duarte Unified will now be an organization founded upon the four pillars listed below:

A Focus on Results: The District will reduce the achievement gap equitably between the most successful and least successful students, regardless of their race or ethnicity or social or economic circumstances.

Service-Centered: The District will create a culture of service grounded in the promise that all people will be treated with dignity and respect.

21st Century Schools: The District will prepare teachers and leaders to create the conditions for students to think critically, solve problems creatively and collaboratively, and compete in the world of complex environmental, political, technological, and socioeconomic challenges.

Strong Partnerships: The District will create a culture where partnering entities work together to integrate and complement each other in support of student success.

These four pillars represent the voices of our students, parents, staff, and community members

Together these principles are threaded throughout the CAP and are reflected in each of the seven primary strategies that drive the plan. The seven strategies are listed below:

- 1. Reconfigure the District into four PK-8 magnet schools, a comprehensive high school education complex and an alternative-options learning center all strategically designed to create the conditions for all students and staff to thrive and realize their potential.
- 2. Create an equitable education for all students.
- 3. Partner with the Orange County School of the Arts, to be known as California School of the Arts- San Gabriel Valley, to create a landmark and replicable compact between a school District and public charter school.

- 4. Develop and implement a master facilities plan for physical space and technology infrastructure required to achieve our objectives and realize our vision and mission.
- and mission.

  5. Develop and implement a rigorous assessment system aligned with the Common Core Standards to effectively analyze student performance data at more frequent intervals in order to improve instruction, close the Achievement Gap, and ensure that all students meet or exceed District standards.
- 6. Incrementally increase the average teacher, staff, and leadership team salaries to be no less than the median for Los Angeles County.
- 7. Build trust through transparency, strengthen engagement, and expand outreach efforts to positively impact student achievement by optimizing systems of communication for all stakeholders.

The Competitive Advantage Plan for the Duarte Unified School District is a living document and will serve as a guide for the future and a report card for the past as the District evaluates it annually.

Superintendent Mucerino offered his gratitude, "to everyone who took the time to make their voices heard by completing the District's community survey, attending focus group sessions, answering phone interviews, and/ or submitting comments for reflection. We listened!"

"I also wish to thank the 12 members of the CAP Writing Team, as well as the 27 staff members and 26 community members of the CAP Steering Committee for their tireless efforts in producing the 72-page CAP document."

It is a new day for Duarte schools! Read the complete plan for yourself and see why at http://www.duarteusd.org/Domain/810. You may also submit questions or comments about the CAP via the District website at http://www.duarteusd.org/Page/3680

And, if you are interested in adding your child's name to the registration list now for the 2017-2018 school year when the District transitions to PreK-8 magnet schools, including enrollment in our Orange County School of the Arts branded PreK-8 & Project Lead the Way STEM PreK-8 programs, and you do not currently attend Duarte Unified Schools, please send your contact information via email to jowen@duarteusd.org

jowen@duarteusd.org.
As of August 1, the District and school offices have been open during regular operating hours. Staff members are available to provide assistance to parents and students needing further information.

"The collective accomplishments of our students and staff in 2015-16 have thrust us into a new school year that is sure to be among the most exciting in the recent history of DUSD," stated Superintendent Mucerino.

"We have so much momentum going that it will be hard to stop us from realizing our goal of being second to none, a model school District with a focus on results. I hope you share my enthusiasm and plan to make this year your best year ever."

Monterey Park Police Department Shows Zero Tolerance in Its Goal to End Drunk Driving

MONTEREY PARK - This Labor Day weekend, families and friends will be celebrating the end of the summer. Sadly, this festive time has also become a dangerous time for America's roads, as many drunk drivers get behind the wheel after celebrating. For this reason, the Monterey Park Police Department is partnering with law enforcement agencies throughout the state to stop drunk drivers and help save lives. The high-visibility national enforcement campaign, "Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over," runs through September 5, 2016. During this period, local law enforcement will show zero tolerance for drunk and drugged driving. Increased national messaging about the dangers of driving drunk, coupled with sobriety checkpoints and increased officers working DUI saturation patrols on the road, aim to reduce impaired driving on our nation's

The Monterey Park Police Department will deploy a special roving DUI Saturation Patrol to stop and arrest alcohol and drug impaired drivers during the end of summer 18 day DUI campaign. Police, Sheriff and the California Highway Patrol will be out looking for the tale-tell signs of drunk driving in order to stop and arrest impaired drivers throughout the region.

In 2014, California recorded 882 alcohol involved deaths. During the 2014 Labor Day holiday weekend, 40 percent of the fatalities in traffic crashes involved drunk drivers, which was the highest percentage of the previous five years. Nighttime proves to be the most dangerous time to be out on the roads. During the 2014 Labor Day holiday period, 83 percent of drunk-driving crash fatalities occurred between 6 p.m. and 5:59 a.m.

The Monterey Park Police Department reminders everyone:

- Plan a safe way home before the fun begins.
  Before drinking designate a
- Before drinking, designate a sober driver.
- Drivers are encouraged to download the Designated Driver VIP, or "DDVIP," free mobile app for Android or iPhone. The DDVIP app helps find nearby bars and restaurants that feature free incentives for the designated sober driver, from free non-alcoholic drinks to free appetizers and more. The feature-packed app even has social media tie-ins and even a tab for the non-DD to call Uber, Lyft or Curb.

- Drugs, medication and alcohol=crashes: Recent statistics reveal that 30 percent of drivers in fatal crashes had one or more drugs in their systems. A study of active drivers showed more tested positive for drugs that may impair driving (14 percent) than did for alcohol (7.3 percent). Of the drugs, marijuana was most prevalent, at 7.4 percent, slightly more than alcohol.
- If you know someone who is about to drive or ride while impaired, take your friend's keys and help your friend make other arrangements to get to where he or she is going safely.

As the summer winds to an end, remember that there's no excuse for drunk or impaired driving. "Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over."

Senate Bill 580 to Preserve Historical Homes Alongside Proposed 710 Route, and Generate Funding for Affordable Housing Clears Legislature

SACRAMENTO – Senate Bill 580, legislation that would generate funding for affordable housing while preserving historical homes near the proposed 710 route, has cleared the legislature a unanimous vote. The bill, authored by Senator Carol Liu (SD – 25) and Assemblyman Chris Holden (AD – 41), now awaits Governor Jerry Brown's signature.

Caltrans currently owns 460 homes that are not within the scope of the remaining 710 route alternatives. Nighty-seven of these homes are declared historic by the state or federal government.

"It has been a long time and a lot of work, but we finally are on track to put these excess properties back into responsible ownership and onto the tax rolls, stabilize neighborhoods, preserve historical homes, and move Caltrans out of the landlord and property management business," said Senator Carol Liu.

Senate Bill 580 would allow a public affordable housing entity to purchase, rehabilitate, and resell the homes in order to dedicate the profits to build affordable housing in the same area.

Historical homes would be offered to a housing entity that can restore it for public use or resale; or to a non-profit organization dedicated to rehabilitation and maintaining the home for public and community access and use.

"California is experiencing an affordable housing crisis and we must look at all our options to solve it," said Assemblymember Chris Holden. "This bill is a creative, local solution that utilizes empty homes to generate affordable housing funding, while fostering preservation of historic homes."

Hernández Bill to Provide Economic Stability to Solid Waste Workers Advances

SACRAMENTO - Assembly Bill 1669 by Assemblyman Roger Hernández (D - West Covina) passed the Assembly Floor with a vote of 48-26. AB 1669 is sponsored by the California Teamsters Public Affairs Council and will reduce unemployment by keeping workers from being displaced when a city's solid waste contract changes companies.

"This bill rewards those companies who agree to retain the current employees for a modest 90 day period after a contract changes hands," explained Hernández.

Hernández further explained that when cities and counties contract for services like waste hauling, they are often focused on the costs of the bids and the level of services provided. In many cases, the workers fall through the cracks when contracts change hands. The existing workforce, trained and experienced, is summarily laid off and replaced.

"These mass layoffs hurt individual families, but also impact the local economy. Promoting a stable workforce allows workers to invest in and contribute to their community. It means people can stay in their homes, kids can stay in their schools, and families can retain health insurance. It also means fewer workers are relying on unemployment insurance or other taxpayer-funded programs," concluded Hernández.

AB 1669 rewards companies who retain existing solid waste collection and transportation workers for 90 days after a new contract takes effect with a 10 percent bid preference. This allows the company an opportunity to decide whether to retain the employee, while giving the employee additional time to prepare for a possible layoff.

The new bill is modeled after current California law which provides a similar bid preference for public transit service contractors who agree to retain employees for 90 days. AB 1669 merely extends that protection to employees of solid waste contractors.

Ron Herrera, Director, Solid Waste Division, International Brotherhood of Teamsters stated, "We applaud the passage of AB 1669. This bill will give drivers in the solid waste industry peace of mind that they will not lose their jobs when one contractor is replaced by another."

With the successful passage, AB 1669 goes before the Governor for his consideration.

Let Your Girl Take Healthy Risks With The Girl Scouts

Today's children's media landscape is filled with characters who encourage young viewers to try new things and think about failure as a learning opportunity, not as a detractor from success. And according to child development experts, all aspects of a girl's life are improved when she has a space to take healthy risks, despite the potential for failure. Girl Scouts provides that supportive environment for girls to approach challenges head on, try new things, and have fun with their friends.

By providing that supportive environment for girls, Girl Scouts allows them to experience the emotional effect of risk without damaging consequences. When a girl takes a chance, she could miss the mark on her first try, but failure is an important learning experience essential to her development. Taking chances and experiencing failure through opportunities with Girl Scouts help girls become stronger challenge seekers, develop a positive sense of self, and learn resourceful problem solving.

"Often, society treats boys and girls differently when it comes to the emotional impact of taking healthy risks," said Sylvia Acevedo, interim CEO of Girl Scouts of the USA. "Healthy risk taking means allowing girls to learn from mistakes and use them as an opportunity for personal advancement. With Girl girls' confidence and giving them the supportive environment in which to take controlled chances, anything is possible."

Research shows that embracing failure as a learning opportunity, rather than as a detractor from success, improves all aspects of a child's life, particularly academics.

Girl Scouts seek opportunities to expand their knowledge and skills, set challenging goals, and take age-appropriate risks through exposure to new experiences. Research shows that opportunities offered through Girl Scouts give girls a leg up in all aspects of their lives. Girl Scout Research Institute (GSRI) found that the diverse activities and experiences available through Girl Scouts gives girls an opportunity to gain skills and confidence that also positively impact their academics. For instance, while a second-grader might try Girl Scout camp for the first time or learn about the water cycle with her friends, a ninth-grader might explore college financial-aid options, learn how to surf, or spend Scouts' emphasis on building her summer abroad volunteering. Experiences like these sharpen girls' problem-solving abilities and reinforce their challenge seeking—important components of success in the classroom and

Taking chances and experiencing failure also allows a girl to develop a positive sense of self and to exercise real-world problem solving. With the support of fellow Girl Scouts and troop leaders, girls can take healthy risks and become leaders in their communities, opportunities that help develop characteristics necessary to become successful adults. In fact, research from the Girl Scout Research Institute has demonstrated that Girl Scouts have more leadership experiences than other girls and boys, and the organization's programming can lead to significant growth in girls' skills.

Dr Andrea Bastiani Archibald Ph.D., Girl Scouts of the USA's chief girl and parent expert, explained, "When children are given the opportunity to put themselves out there they come to see failure as a natural part of life and they develop that tenacity to keep trying. This becomes their orientation-healthy risk taking becomes exciting, not daunting. They approach more difficult challenges as an adult head-on, and can become more successful in all endeavors."

With a new school year just around the corner filled with countless exciting-and potentially intimidating—new experiences, you can help your girl find her spark by joining the Girl Scouts. As the world's largest girl-led organization, Girl Scouts provides a supportive environment for girls to try new things, approach challenges head-on, and have fun with their friends. Now's a great time to sign up! To join, visit girlscouts.org/join, or sign up to volunteer at girlscouts.org/

Calling All Seniors: Get Vaccinated Against The Flu, And Tell Your Loved Ones To Do The Same

People 65 years of age and older were impacted by an estimated 8.3 million illnesses, 4.7 million medical visits and 758,000 flu hospitalizations during the 2014–2015 influenza ("flu") season. These numbers are devastating and underscore how severe and life threatening influenza can be, while highlighting that an annual flu vaccination is one of the things you can do to help maintain your health.

Judith Light, award-winning actress starring in a new Off-Broadway show and Amazon's show "Transparent," is the Flu Ambassador for Flu + You for a third year. As an ambassador, Judith is helping to educate older adults and their loved ones about the seriousness of the flu, the importance of getting an annual flu vaccination and their vaccine options. This national public education initiative is a collaboration between the National Council on Aging (NCOA) and Sanofi Pasteur. Judith wants everyone eligible to commit to getting an annual flu vaccination and to share the information with oth-

"Maintaining your health is important, and getting an annual flu vaccination is a key part of that," said Light. "For those who are 65 years of age and older like me, it's especially important to try to get your flu vaccination early in the season, as soon as it's available."

According to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the single best way to help prevent the flu is to get an annual vaccination, which is recommended for everyone six months of age and older, with rare exception. Adults 65 years of age and older have flu vaccine options designed for their age group. A higher-dose vaccine was developed specifically to address the age-related weakening of the immune system.

"Surprisingly, older adults are largely unaware of their vaccine options, according to a survey we conducted of 1,000 U.S. adults 65 years of age and older," said Kathleen Cameron, MPH, Senior Director, National Council on Aging. "Adults 65 and older should talk with their health care provider about their options, including a higher-dose vaccine, which is widely available. We encourage people to help protect themselves against the flu, share information about influenza with their peers and make a commitment together to getting vaccinated."

Older adults and their loved ones can learn more about the flu and flu prevention, and view video messages featuring Judith Light, at www.ncoa.org/Flu. (NAPSI)

American Legion to Host First Responders Recognition

by Laura Bradshaw

COVINA - The American Legion Family at Charter Cove American Legion Post 755 in Covina is hosting a First Responders Recognition on Sunday, September 11. The event starts at noon where Legion Family members will begin delivering 110 meals to three law enforcement and eight fire stations located in Covina, Glendora and San Dimas for in-station personnel. On and off duty law enforcement and fire personnel are invited to visit the Post from noon to 4pm for a complimentary meal as a

"thank you" for all they do to keep the community safe.

Inspired by a social media posting from an American Legion Post in Florida, Sons of the American Legion (SAL) Squadron 755 member Jesse Bradshaw presented the idea to the Post 755 Family and set the project in motion. Mr. Bradshaw also challenged other American Legion posts in the San Gabriel Valley to do something similar to honor first responders. Posts from Pasadena to Pomona have plans to honor first responders on or around September 11.

American Legion Post 755 is located at 20516 Arrow Hwy., Covina.

The American Legion is the largest wartime veterans' service organization with 2.2 million members in more than 13000 posts in communities across America. The American Legion with the American Legion Auxiliary and the Sons of the American Legion make up the American Legion Family, committed to serving active duty military personnel, veterans, their families and the community.

The New and Remodeled Silver Spoon Restaurant

The owner and servers of the Silver Spoon Restaurant, Albondio, Shinobu, Carmen, owner Young Lee, Zena, Fatima, Jesse and Juanito.

By Jayam Rutnam

GLENDORA - The ever popular Silver Spoon Restaurant opposite the Medical Building on Grand Avenue, has a new look and a new owner. Young Lee, the new owner has spared no expense in remodeling this landmark restaurant in Glendora. From the sign outside to the entire interior, the restaurant has been remodeled in a way that the ambiance remains the same. This restaurant was very popular in the past, and owner Young Lee has retained the services of the previous cooks and servers to insure there will be no change in the service and favorite dishes that were served previously. They have added to the menu, which boasts over 100 items. From Steaks, Omelet's, Pork Chops, Pancakes, Waffles, Breakfasts to Fish and Chips, they have it all. They even have Mexican food. While there is a large variety of a food on the menu, it has not taken away from the quality and taste of the food.

Famous Glendora veterinarian, Dr Song Park frequents the restaurant on Fridays, to taste the Clam Chowder and a healthy portion of pork chops. Mario Voicu, owner of Glendora Jewelers is a regular customer who also likes the Clam Chowder and Pastrami Sandwiches. Others seen there recently were Joe Babineau of Glendora Plumbing and his wife Karen, who were noticed reading
