Gas Station Robbery and Kidnapping. Arrests Made.

By George Ogden

LA VERNE - An armed man robbed a Shell gas station in the 2500 block of Foothill Blvd. in La Verne Thursday morning, May 18.

The gunman entered the Shell station around 5AM. The gunman pointed his weapon at the female clerk and ordered her to take the money from the cash registers and put it into a bag. After she handed him about $200 she saw an opportunity to get away. As she was running across the parking lot, the gunman caught up with her when she fell. He dragged her back to the station and ordered her to get more money from the other registers. She complied. It was reported, that he found credit cards that had been forgotten by customers and he stole those as well. He also took $600 in lottery tickets from the station. Apparently, on Friday, two other suspects tried to cash in some of the winning tickets. This led to the arrest of these two suspects.

They were identified as Dylan Torres, 25, of Eastvale, and Thomas Hernandez, 28, of Glendora. It appears they rolled over on the guy that robbed the station. The third suspect, who was a gunman that robbed the station and kidnapped the clerk from the parking lot, was identified as Don
