INSIDE Baldwin Park Unified Elementary Students Bring Creativity to County Animal Shelters

BALDWIN PARK - Students from Bursch Elementary School added their own creative touches to a county-wide "Portraits of Hope" art initiative to beautify and visually revitalize animal shelters, painting prefabricated designs of dogs and rabbits during a two-day art workshop on Dec. 12 and 13.

Once finished, the cut-out designs, illuminated with colorful flowers, will be displayed at animal shelters throughout L.A. County, including the Baldwin Park location. Bursch is one of only two Los Angeles schools participating in the program.

"This project really resonates with our students," Bursch Elementary special education teacher Stacey Ranger said. "The students are creating art that the entire community will be able to appreciate. Our kids are very excited about playing such a critical role in the initiative."

All Bursch students, from transitional kindergarten to sixth grade, participated in the civic art project, which also encouraged student feedback on how to allocate resources and solicited ideas on how to improve the lives of millions of people around the world.

Founded by Ed and Bernie Massey, "Portraits of Hope" is a privately funded nonprofit organization dedicated to bringing public art to the masses. In 2015, the Massev brothers invited 40 Bursch students to their El Segundo art studio to assist in painting the huge orbs that made up the "Spheres at MacArthur Park" installation.

For the animal shelter revitalizations, Ed Massey designed hundreds of animal-themed cutouts for Bursch students to paint at their campus. In July, the L.A. Board of Supervisors unanimously voted to install the art at county shelters to promote pet adoptions by making them more inviting to the public.

Bursch sixth-grader Ramon Morales contributed to the

"Spheres" project and attended the installation event with his par-

"I am very proud to have worked on this," said Morales, who added that the new project holds special value for his family. "We have a Chihuahua at home. It's a rescue dog."

To broaden the scope of the art project to conform with Bursch's standards-based curriculum, elements of critical thinking and collaborative learning were added. Students were asked to voice their opinions on what social issues concerned them the most and to list everything they

30 years. Among the concerns were health issues, crime, homelessness, child abuse and animal abuse

"My topic is homeless dogs," sixth-grader Jessica Tapia wrote. "If you were a dog, you would not want to be without a home. So take a dog or two and give them a lovely home."

Bursch students were also given a photocopy of a $100 bill, divided into 14 areas of need such as health care, infrastructure, animal rights and ethnic relations. Students were asked to choose what percentage of money should go to a specific area of need.

"Baldwin Park is honored to be part of Ed and Bernie Massey's civic beautification initiative," BPUSD Superintendent Froilan N. Mendoza said. "What makes this project so significant is that we are asking our students to think about social issues and compelling them to visualize their future and encourage communication and collaboration with others."

Inter Community Hospital Donates $118,000.00 to Citrus Valley Health Partners in 2016

COVINA - Janice Clark. President of the Inter-Community Hospital Auxiliary, presented Roger Sharma, Executive V.P. and Chief Financial Officer of Citrus Valley Health Partners, and Joe Zanetta, Chief Executive Officer of Citrus Valley Health Foundation, with two checks at their December Luncheon. The first check was for $50,000. This was the first installment of a $200, 000 pledge the Auxiliary has made over the next four years. The second check was for $8,033.33. This was the Auxiliary's portion of a commitment jointly made with The Auxiliaries of the other CVHP Hospitals to purchase NICU monitors and beds for the Neo Natal Ward at Queen of the Valley Hospital. IRWINDALE - A traffic stop for a taillight infraction resulted in an arrest of a gang member from La Puente. The driver was booked on suspicion of carrying a loaded handgun and being a gang member in possession of a gun. He was later found to have a stun-gun and was charged with that as well. The officer pulled the driver over to basically let him know that he needs to get it corrected. The officer made contact with the driver and according to protocol, ran the driver through the system. It showed that he was a gang member. The officer asked if he had anything in the car that he shouldn't have and

Tournament Of Roses Bandfest Rain Soaked

by Howard Palmer

PASADENA - The Rose Parade marching bands are always a highlight and everyone enjoys the stirring music and high stepping drum majors. Prior to the parade many head to the Pasadena City College Jackie Robinson Stadium to see the bands perform their field shows that contributed to their selection to perform in the parade. This year was no exception. The stands were filled to capacity. The event takes place over one and half days. This year the Friday afternoon show was held under a very overcast sky and some light rain made its way to the ground, however, the Saturday morning and afternoon shows had varying degrees of rainfall. The afternoon show was held in a steady rain to the disappointment of the band members and spectators. The song "Singing in the Rain" was appropriate with a little change to "Playing and Marching in the Rain". Although the audience was able to hide under umbrellas and raingear the performers were totally soaked, but still performed their shows as if the sun was brightly shining and the sound of the music was unhindered.

Even the President of the Tournament of Roses, Brad Ratliff, did not seek shelter from the rain. During the performance of the U.S. Air Force Band, celebrating their 70th birthday, he stood at attention on the field sideline beside the band directors in respect to our military as some of the heaviest rain pounded everyone. Ratliff is the only T of R President to have played an instrument with every band selected to perform in this year's parade. During the shows he played either a trumpet or trombone with some of the bands, including playing the National Anthem with the T of R Honor Band.

Tournament of Roses President Brad Ratliff and wife Susan. Brad prepares to play his trumpet with a performing band.

Belli. Remo began his sponsorship of the Tournament of Roses Bandfest over 35 years ago and he attended the event every year. His company Remo Inc., in addition to sponsoring Bandfest, has donated the bass drumheads, depicting the Tournament of Roses theme, to every band in the parade. The drumheads have become the most visible depiction of the T of R theme in the parade. Remo passed away in April, 2016, from complications from pneumonia at age 88. His wife Ami could always be seen in the stands at every show supporting Remo as he participated in honoring each band director with a souvenir snare drum. She was in the stands again this year representing Remo.

honor. In the face of overcast skies and rain he brought a ray of sunshine.

The Bandfest is a must see event while enjoying the Tournament of Roses. Although the rain put a slight damper on this year's show most of the spectators remained and could be heard saying, "I will be back next year rain or shine".

All of this year's Bandfest shows can be viewed on www.youtube.com/music213.

Grassroots ESL Awarded Funding To Explore Partnership

Organizations come together to provide English tutoring for Azusa adults

AZUSA - A diverse core of community organizations met at the Azusa City Library on December 13 to explore how to strengthen Grassroots ESL, a collaboration of groups committed to meeting the English language needs of the community. Grassroots ESL was established in 2013 and now has eight participating members: Azusa City Library, Community Housing-Works, Dalton Elementary School, Gladstone Street Elementary School, Lee Elementary School, Mountain View Elementary School, Neighborhood Homework House, and the Rosedale HOA. This year they will focus on how to better leverage resources and expertise among their members to increase capacity to provide such a needed service.

The federal Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) awarded a $23,500 grant to the Azusa City Library to lead the planning. The project draws from research which favors groups working together for "collective impact" rather than laboring independently in "silos." It also supports the notion of a community working from a grassroots level. "It's our own community. It's our own people. Who better to do this than us?" stated Alexandra Muniz, President of the Foothill Learning Alliance, a nonprofit organization which supports Grassroots ESL. Project members will meet monthly to restructure operations so that it is truly a partnership with shared responsibility, shared ownership and shared accountability. They will document their experience as an example that other communities may choose to follow.

Last year Grassroots ESL partners taught English to 162 adults through volunteer tutors meeting with small groups of students. More volunteer tutors are needed to help adults to learn English. A free tutor training workshop will be held Saturday, November 14, from 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 at Azusa Pacific University. To register for the training or for more information about the project, contact Cathay Reta at the Azusa City Library, (626) 812-5266.

AZUSA - As Americans prepare for a new administration in Washington, legal immigrants rush to learn about citizenship. The Azusa City Library is hosting a Free Citizenship Forum on Saturday, January 21, 2017 from 2:00 - 4:00 p.m. at the Azusa Civic Auditorium located at 213 E. Foothill Blvd., Azusa, CA 91702.

Dolores Sanchez, Citizenship Specialist at the Azusa City Library, states that calls for citizenship information have tripled in the last few months. People want to learn how to become United States citizens. Sanchez states most of the calls are from legal immigrants, mainly Mexican, who have lived in the United States for over 30 years and now, want to become citizens.

The forum will be conducted in English and Spanish by a United States Citizenship Immigration Services representative. An overview of the naturalization process, including eligibility requirements and application fees will be provided. Attendees will be given the opportunity to make an appointment for the Azusa Citizenship Workshop scheduled will provide pro-bono attorneys to help people complete the naturalization application (Form N-400) --- a twenty page application. Appointments must be made in advance. The conversations are happening on a regular basis where anyone can attend and be part of a more casual conversation about what's going on around town. There are no time limits and no agendas. The conversation will be be Development, Coyotes, Water Leaks, Restrooms in the parks, pot holes, hiking trails or whatever you want to discuss.

Whether you have concerns, questions or just want to listen to what others have to say. This is a perfect opportunity. We find that many times, members of the audience have information to help others. Stolen Computer Recovered in Covina

By George Ogden

COVINA - An expensive computer valued at over $2400.00 was stolen out of Glendora during an auto burglary on Wednesday, January 4th. Many computers today have tracking units built into the computer even when it is not working. The victim received information on Thursday evening from MAC that the computer was in the vicinity of Grand and Cypress avenues.

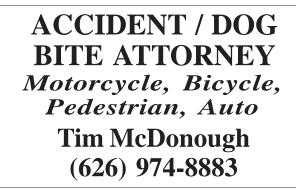

The victim drove to the area and found what she thought was the suspect and then called the Covina Police around 8 p.m. The Police arrived and detained three people at a bus stop. One of the three men had a backpack and he was found to have the computer. He stated he bought it for $100.00 from someone he did not know. He was arrested for the auto burglary and the theft of the computer. The other two men were not arrested.

Charged with the crime is Matthew Christian Jensen, 18, a male white from Baldwin Park. Jensen has been arrested

5 times for over a dozen crimes including felonies.

The habitual criminal also has an extensive juvenile record as well. He is being held on a $20,000 bail and is being investigated for other possible crimes. Police credit both the tracking device and the victim for assisting in catching this criminal.

California Voters Pushed the YES Button on Debt and Taxes

By Lois M. Shade Former Mayor of Glendora

Several of the online newsletters I get are headlining in big bold letters - California sales tax down. That's down from 7.5% to 7.25%. Or as Watchdog pointed out on January 6th, a penny on a $4 cup of coffee; or, a $1 or a $400 TV set; or $100 on a $40,000 car.

But take a good look at what replaced that statewide sales tax decrease. A mountain of debt enough debt some say to bankrupt the state. And, Gov. Brown is promising a real lean budget this year after the Legislative Analyst Office projected a $1.2 billion income shortfall.

What did Californians actually commit to when they passed huge school bonds, park bonds, city sales taxes, and watched the spending spree spiral skyward. I find it incredible and just can't imagine what people are thinking when they keep hitting the YES button on tax increases and bond measures.

Cal City Finance gathered up the statewide information.

• Voters had the chance to consider 650 local measures of which 430 were proposed tax increases and 352 of those passed.

• K-12 school districts and community colleges, using 184 different bond proposals, were asking for $25.314 billion. Of the 177 bonds requiring 55% approval to pass only 8 failed. Of the 22 parcel tax proposals, only 5 failed. In all, California schools have $23 billion in local bonds, not counting the state $9 billion bond voters approved statewide. And, remember, interest rates on those bonds almost double the actual bond amount.

In our area, South Whittier committed to $29 million with East Whittier passing $24 million; Pomona passed $300 million; Hacienda La Puente bonded $148 million; West Covina USD support $143 million bond; Claremont committed to $58 million; and, Walnut Valley $152 million. I just went through the pages and pages listing all the bonds and picked some cities locally we've all heard of in L.A. County.

• 224 other revenue measures of which 12 of those were asking for $7.266 billion in bonds. Included were the $3.5 billion for Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART); $1.2 billion for Los Angeles homeless housing; and Santa Clara County's $950 million affordable housing measure.

• 51 of the increases in various taxes out of 59 passed.

• 16 proposals for an increase in hotel taxes with only 5 failing. If you are planning a trip, consider San Clemente, San Jacinto, El Centro, Auburn, or California City whose voters decided to vote NO on that tax. The majority of those cities passing that tax were primarily in the area from Fort Bragg south to Soledad.

• 8 out of 5 cities voted in a utility tax.

• With the passage of Prop 64, medical marijuana legalization, there were 63 measures relating to marijuana, 39 in 37 cities and county areas imposing higher taxes on the commodity.

Cal City Finance statistics pointed out this year there have been more tax and bond issues put before the voters than ever before and more passed with some heavy duty numbers that will, in my opinion, severely hamper the growth in this state, and probably chase out the sane and conservative. We are hearing constantly about the cost of housing and the affordability level but given these bond issues that normally increase your property tax bill (sometimes hundreds of dollars a year) it seems California housing will be less and less affordable and there will be less and less "pocket change" for other things in life.

Los Angeles passed Measure JJJ requiring, among other things, residential development projects to provide for affordable housing and comply with the prevailing wage and local hiring requirements. 64% of the voters agreed and also agreed to an affordable housing incentive program for developments near major transit stops. I question their definition of "affordable" and where the money will come from to make them affordable.

Personally, I think this out-ofcontrol spiral spending happened in part because Californians, as well as the rest of the country, are tired of a lack luster economy and not seeing things "happening" after political promise after promise. Not seeing improvements in schools due to lack of targeted state funding or inadequate pre-planning with capital improvement plans; traffic gridlock not just on our highways and freeways any more, but on our city streets; and, affordable housing that is disappearing and becoming grossly huge, non-compatible structures, no green space for the kids, and yet still not what I consider to be affordable.

A Curse Or A Blessing?

Karl Barth, the 20th century's most influential theologian, suggested that authentic spiritual leaders must hold the Bible in one hand and the daily newspaper in the other. Much of my lifeincluding the present-has existed on the boundary between these two realities. While I know a bit about the religions of the world, my basic commitment and location are within the Christian faith. So when I think of the relationship between the so-called sacred and the so-called secular, Christianity is the arena that defines who I am.

When religion intersects its culture it can either be a curse of a blessing. Since its inception, Christianity has been responsible for more war, bloodshed, bigotry, violence and inhumanity than almost anything else in western history. When honest secularists tell us how much they despise religion, they make a cogent point. A question with which I have struggled for many years is why religion may at times be a great positive force, and why at other times a great negative force. What makes the difference?

Let's look at what might make religion go sour and turn destructive. For a starter, consider these examples of the worst cultural episodes generated or supported by committed Christians:

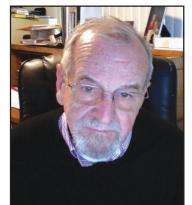

The Crusades.

The Inquisition. The Thirty Years' War---just to

Charles H. Bayer KKK-North and South. Apartheid in South Africa. Nazism.

There is a perspective common to all these historic episodes. While there are undoubtedly other factors, all of the above were dominated by a distinctive concept. They all held to a notion of religion that declared their perception was exclusively the truth, God's only way, and that all those outside those doctrinal boundaries were "infidels" or "the lost" or some other condemnable designation. The only hope for these infidels was to be converted. In each of these examples, religion divided the righteous from everyone else. The name we give to that affirmation is "fundamentalism." Examine the religious commitments of all of the above, and you will find that the more conservative the religion, the more it poisoned the culture. At other times society has been ennobled by religious passion. Consider the following, just in American history:

The abolition of slavery. Civil Rights.

A clear witness for peace and Women's suffrage. Social Security. Justice for workers.

Support for the least advantaged, including the poor, children, the aged, the disabled.

Medicare

Interfaith dialogue

Concern for the environment, with particular focus on climate change.

Without the support of progressive religion, none of these would have either been enacted or woven into the social fabric.

Religion was and is substantially involved in the creation of each of these humanizing episodes. But what kind of religion? A religion that is welcoming, inclusive, focused on the rights and well-being of all of God's children, protective of the natural order and open to affirming those of other faith convictions.

At the same time, religious fundamentalism, backed by political conservatives, has consistently fought every one of these advances. I must conclude that it makes a great deal of difference whether one's religious perspective is fundamentalistic and exclusive, or progressive and open to a wider notion of what makes for a benevolent, just and more peaceful world-or what God wants the world to look like. In this column I take no position on the religious truth or falsity of any perspective. However, in our era it is clear that much of American Christianity has aligned itself with a conservative political posture which has sought to halt the quest for a more just society and a more peaceful world. If you long for an open and compassionate world, be careful what sort of religion you affirm. It makes a difference.

"TIME JOCKEY" - Baldwin's Luck

By Joe Castillo

Early Days The story of Elias Jackson Baldwin is well known in Southern California. Rancho Santa Anita, Rancho La Merced, Santa Anita Racetrack, Baldwin sought to establish a livtraded and sold horses. He created a prosperous horse business and eventually filled his pockets with several thousands of dollars. Upon arrival in San Francisco, City of Arcadia, Baldwin Park and ery business to care for the many the Queen Anne Cottage are all horses that were being used as transportation by the city's new wealthy establishment but he first needed a place to live. He located the largest livery stable in San Francisco and then found a hotel close to its location. He applied for a position in the hotel and after seeing how poorly it was being operated; Baldwin made an offer to buy it. Eventually, he made a deal with the owner and took over ownership for an amount which was less than Baldwin felt was its worth. One month later, Baldwin sold the hotel for double the amount he paid for it and used some of the profits to purchase a livery stable which he also sold shortly thereafter for a substantial profit. Baldwin again used his profits to invest in the next great opportunity which was the Comstock Bonanza in Nevada. He bought mine shares when they were low and sold when high and by the time the second bonanza exploded so too did Baldwin's wealth. With his new fortunes, Baldwin decided to travel to India and while getting ready to board his steamer he informed his banker to sell his mine stocks as Baldwin felt they were at their highest value. When his banker went to retrieve the stocks from Baldwin's safe, he realized that the key to the safe was in Baldwin's coat pocket and the stocks could not be sold. For the many weeks Baldwin was overseas, the stocks remained in his safe. When Baldwin finally returned, the value of his shares did not decrease but they increased beyond anyone's expectations with their value eventually reaching $4-$5 million dollars. The whole episode resulted in Baldwin being given the new nickname of "Lucky" and most of the time he was very lucky indeed. Eventually, Baldwin's story spread to Arcadia and the San Gabriel Valley, and when Baldwin died in 1909 his fortune had amassed to $35 million, adding a fitting end to one of the best and luckiest businessmen California has ever seen. part of Baldwin's legacy. But Baldwin left his footprint throughout California after arriving from Ohio in the early 1850's. California became a new state in 1850 and the gold rush brought a variety of people lured by the possibility of making it rich. As a youth, Baldwin had a strong interest in horses from riding them to taking care of them and eventually racing them. In 1853, Baldwin arrived in San Francisco at the age of 25. It had taken him roughly five years to travel from Ohio with his intermediary stops in various towns where he bought,

So... this whack-job, Santiago, who was kicked out of the military service and later went to the FBI to report that the "U.S. Government" is forcing him to watch ISIS videos and he hears voices. He claims the government put a "chip" in his head. Really??? Why wasn't he put on a "No-Fly List"? Why was he given back his weapon after he was detained for mental issues? only baggage he had. He lands and recovers his gun from the luggage pick-up area, he takes it to the restroom, and he loads up the handgun. He then simply walks out, unloads it by shooting people at random killing 5 and critically injuring 6 more. Then he gives up because he is out of bullets.

Next, we have a bunch of whack-jobs, four young people that do a racial attack on a "special needs" 18 year-old man who was held for two days and tor-

How High Can The Us Stock Market Go?

As the world opens for business in 2017, Wall Street is making endless resolutions, predictions, and forecasts as we await the seismic shift in the change of power at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. Investors have wasted no time in placing their bets on the front-running investment themes. Broad deregulation, lower corporate and personal income taxes, immigration reform, massive infrastructure spending, and repatriation of capital lead the hot list of what will likely be the front-and-center agenda items in Trump's first 100 days.

It's fairly easy to predict no recession in 2017, due to "hope and change" after the election of a very different President - similar to the economic surge enjoyed in 2009 after Barack Obama's inauguration.

It has been almost eight years since the current economic recovery began, and no growth cycle in U.S. history has stretched beyond 10 years. However, records are made to be broken. The 10-year recovery of 1991 to 2001 itself broke the previous record of 8 years and 10 months (February 1961 to December 1969), which broke the World War II record of 6 years and 8 months (June, 1938 to February, 1945), which broke the previous record of five years (1848 to 1853).

The reason many think this recovery will last beyond 10 years (i.e., to 2019 or later) is that 2009-2016 growth rates have been so slow. A "Goldilocks" recovery ("neither too hot nor too cold") can last longer than an overheated one. Historically, U.S. recoveries end with overheated growth leading to overinvestment. We probably haven't seen that happen. Even though the unemployment rate is now below 5%, too many have left the labor force for this reading to be designated "full employment." The current recovery averaged slightly over 2% growth vs. 4.1% in the 1980s recovery and 3.5% per year in the 10-year 1990s recovery.

Look at past recoveries in terms of aggregate percentage growth: Eight years of 4.1% real growth (1982-90) delivered a total accumulated growth of 38%, while 10 years of 3.5% annual growth (1991-2001) delivered 41% growth. But eight years of 2.1% growth (2009-16) will total only 18% aggregate growth. We have a long way to go if we want to see 40% aggregate growth during the current recovery. In fact, the slow growth we've seen lately reduces the chances of a deep recession.

Ends of cycles are usually characterized by inflation and rising interest rates. Although both have risen incrementally lately, inflation and interest rates are currently well below historical norms. The world is more concerned with deflation than inflation now. And if inflation should return, the Federal Reserve has a new tool -$2.5 trillion sitting on the Fed's balance sheet. Reducing the Fed's balance sheet by selling government securities would be one immediate way of moderating inflation risks in the financial system.

Despite Donald Trump's

promise of 4% or greater growth in 2017, economists are now estimating that fourth-quarter 2016 GDP will grow at an annual rate of 2.4%, with 2017 predictions of more of the same. A moderately rising economy in 2017 could result in continued recovery, perhaps into the 2020s. Investors may be surprised to find out that there is no limit to how high the stock market can go. If the economy grows and earnings in the stock market grow, stocks can go higher once again in 2017. Earnings growth is estimated to accelerate in 2017. While we are in a very mature economic expansion, Wall Street sees no sign of a recession on the horizon yet. There are bigger risks to the global economy emanating from Europe and China than anything that will come from the U.S.

That said, don't be surprised if 2017 turns out to be a more volatile year for the U.S. stock market as the new President seems hell-bent on making many changes, some of them controversial. He also has a rather trigger-happy Twitter finger. Making public policy with 140-character tweets should be interesting.

Wall Street's biggest concern is that Trump may launch a trade war with China as a first step, before embarking on his domestic policy agenda. That would be the wrong sequence of events, as many do not believe he will be able to achieve the domestic economic acceleration he is looking for during a trade war. I guess we'll find out soon enough, as he has prepared many executive orders for his first day in office.

Your Money - Ask Julia

Because we have a small downpayment, we are going to have to get an FHA loan to buy a home. Can you explain a little about the mortgage insurance?

Mortgage insurance is charged on any loan that has less than 20percent equity. The purpose of mortgage insurance is to pay the lender in case you fail to make your payments and have to foreclose. Good news! Any loans that fund (close of escrow) on or after January 27, 2017, will have a reduced annual mortgage insurance rate. This could save you around $500 per year!

There is also Conventional (not FHA) loan program in which you put 1-percent down, the lender adds 2-percent, for a total of 3-percent down. There are also advantages when it comes to mortgage insurance. If you do not want your taxes and insurance collected as impounds by the lender, banks typically charge you a .25-percent fee. There is a program that waives that fee.

Could you please clarify and comment on inflation and recession.

Inflation is the increase in the price of products over time. Long-term inflation erodes your power to purchase. In other words, over time, your savings buys less; a dollar no longer buys what it could a few years ago. The factor to determine a Recession is two quarters (two 3-month periods of time) in a row of negative economic growth. Election years tend to include increased rumors and fears of economic Julia Yoder uncertainty.

Our friends are really close to needing to do a short sale, but they also really want to stay in their home. Is there a way to do this?

Let your friends know that they need to talk with a loan originator about the possibility of refinancing into a HARP loan. Although not recommended, one of the IRS-allowed 'hardship' distributions from a 401(k) is for prevention of eviction or foreclosure of the mortgage on a primary residence.

My mom is trying to decide whether to give her home to me now, or just have me inherit it upon her passing. What is the best thing to do?

It depends. Look at the difference between the Estate tax rate vs. the Capital Gains tax rate applicable in your mother and your specific case. For example if the estate tax rate would be 16 percent, and the capital gains tax would be 20 percent, it would be better to wait. If the Estate tax rate would be higher than the capital gains tax, it could be better to take action now. Also, check with your CPA about the tax ramifications of gifting equity (rather than cash) up to the annual parent-to-child annual limit. Keep in mind that life insurance is included in the value of one's estate when calculating estate tax.

I have the option of taking all the money now out of my fixed annuity, without any early surrender charges. I like annuities. Although I don't plan to use the money, I might want to access it later. What do you suggest I do with this money?

Depending on your entire financial picture, I'd probably suggest either reinvesting in an annuity or purchasing a paid-up life insurance policy. Some offer an option of almost immediate access to a good part of your money. Some policies offer penalty-free, accelerated access if you need the money for a nursing home. It really boils down to what you want your money to do for you and what is most suitable for you.

Micro Computers

We live in the age of specialists or experts. Many can still recall the days when people took care of maintaining their own vehicles. There was even a term for these handy types. They were called "shade-tree mechanics." Where have they all gone? Cars didn't used to be so complicated but each year when the new models are rolled off the assembly lines the built-in computers make it more difficult for shade-tree mechanics to exist. Cars have anywhere from 10 to 75 microcomputers on board and all network and talk to each other. Even for us experts, a scan tool is needed. This testing device requires software and is then plugged into the car's data port, telling our technicians what and

Expertise Requires Management And Technical Training

Cars have become increasingly sophisticated but many shop owners and technicians haven't. It costs money to buy the equipment to service and repair today's vehicles and it takes training. Our education is on-going because there are changes made by manufacturers each year.

We Want Only The Best For You

Many independent shops are closing their doors because they refuse to pay the money to keep current. They don't require continuing education for their staff and they don't require it for themselves either. They don't buy the state-of-the-art equipment because they and their staff aren't trained to use it. We keep current in all areas. Because of this, we attract the best staff. SmartMoney.com states that "a mechanic you can trust is worth his weight in gold." We work hard to be worth our weight in gold each day.

To Kill a Mockingbird Staged Dramatic Reading

AZUSA - Azusa City Library and Azusa Renaissance Theater will present a live dramatic reading of Harper Lee's beloved masterpiece To Kill a Mockingbird on Saturday, January 14th, from 1 to 3 pm. The event and postshow discussion is designed to commemorate the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday weekend.

The entire community is welcome to watch, listen and discuss the tale of a fictional Southern town, Maycomb, Alabama, in the 1930's and the struggle for Civil Rights all seen through the eyes of a young girl, Scout Finch. Both the heartwarming and tragic events that take place weave a memorable narrative and demonstrate why, more than 50 years after its publishing, this novel is still one of the most important in American literary history.

Free event. Refreshments served.

You have 30 calendar days after this Summons and Petition are served on you to file a Response (form FL-120) at the court and have a copy served on the petitioner. A letter, phone call, or court appearance will not protect you.

If you do not file your Response on time, the court may make orders affecting your marriage or domestic partnership, your property, and custody of your children. You may be ordered to pay support and attorney fees and costs.

For legal advice, contact a lawyer immediately. Get help finding a lawyer at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp), at the California Legal Services website (www.lawhelpca.org) or by contacting your local county bar association.

Tiene 30 días de calendario después de haber recibido la entrega legal de esta Citación y Petición para presentar una Respuesta (formulario FL-120) ante la corte y efectuar la entrega legal de una copia al demandante. Una carta o llamada telefónica o una audiencia de la corte no basta para protegerlo. Si no presenta su Respuesta a tiempo, la corte puede dar órdenes que afecten su matrimonio o pareja de hecho, sus bienes y la custodia de sus hijos. La corte también le puede ordenar que pague manutención, y honorarios y costos legales

Para asesoramiento legal, póngase en contacto de inmediato con un abogado. Puede obtener información para encontrar un abogado en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en el sitio web de los Servicios Legales de California (www.lawhelpca.org) o poniéndose en contacto con el colegio de abogados de su condad.

NOTICE-RESTRAINING ORDERS ARE ON PAGE 2: These restraining orders are effective against both spouses or domestic partners until the petition is dismissed, a judgment is entered, or the court makes further orders. They are enforceable anywhere in California by any law enforcement officer who has received or seen a copy of them.

AVISO-LAS ÓRDENES DE RESTRICCIÓN SE ENCUENTRAN EN LA PÁGINA 2: Las órdenes de restricción están en vigencia en cuanto a ambos cónyuges o miembros de la pareja de hecho hasta que se despida la petición, se emita un fallo o la corte dé otras órdenes. Cualquier agencia del orden público que haya recibido o visto una copia de estas órdenes puede hacerlas acatar en cualquier lugar de California

FEE WAIVER: If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the clerk for a fee waiver form. The court may order you to pay back all or part of the fees and costs that the court waived for you or the other party. EXENCIÓN DE CUOTAS: Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario un formulario de exención de cuotas. La corte puede ordenar que usted pague, ya sea en parte o por completo, las cuotas y costos de la corte previamente exentos a petición de usted o de la otra parte.

NOTICE: You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 calendar days after this Summons and Legal Papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form tat you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you nay be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal service program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp) or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court and dismiss the case.

AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentrode 30 dias, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su version. Lea la informacion a continuacion.

Tiene 30 DIAS DE CALENDARIO despues de que le entreguen esta citacion y papeles para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamasa telefonica no lo protegen. Su repuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted puede usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y mas informacion en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su candado o en la corte que le quede mas cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentacion, pida al secretario de la corte que le de un formulario de exencion de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podra quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin mas advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recommendable que llama a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remision a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org) en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California. (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniendose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. AVISO; Por ley, la corte tiene derecho a reclamar las cuotas y los costos exentos por imponer un gravaman sobre cualquier recuperacion de $10,000 o mas de valor recibida mediante un acuerdo o una concesion de arbitraje en un caso de derecho civil. Tiene que pagar el gravamen de la corte antes de que la corte puede desechar el caso.

CITY OF COVINA NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ZONE CHANGE (ZCH) 16-003

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Planning Commission of the City of Covina will conduct a PUBLIC HEARING in the City Hall Council Chamber, 125 East College Street, Covina, on Tuesday, January 24, 2017 at 7:00 p.m., to consider application Zone Change (ZCH) 16-003, a City-initiated request to change the zoning district of the rearward section of the vacant property at 441 to 457 East San Bernardino Road from "M-1/Light Manufacturing" to "C-5/Specified Highway Commercial" to match the zoning on the frontward portion of the site and to accommodate a future used car sales facility (APNs 8430-020-034, 8430-020-035 & 8430-020-036).

Pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the City has analyzed the Zone Change (ZCH) application and the associated future used car sales facility and concluded that they will not have the potential for causing a significant effect on the environment. Therefore, it has been determined that the ZCH application would be categorically exempt in accordance with Section 15301(a), Class 1 of the CEQA Guidelines. Staff's recommendation will be that the Planning Commission recommend to the City Council approval of ZCH 16-003.

We solicit any information and/or data that any citizen wishes to input concerning this application. All interested citizens are invited to attend the PUBLIC HEARING, where all opinions may be expressed.

Easy Decluttering Tips

Even the cleanest home will look messy if it's not properly organized. Jule Eller, director of trend and style at Lowe's, says there are a few simple ways to declutter your home and make your space look tidy.

Start by assessing each room. Every home and family is different but kitchens, garages and closets tend to get the messiest the fastest.

A kitchen is a gathering place for everyone in the family, so it can become cluttered with everything from backpacks and junk mail to cereal bowls and pizza boxes. Cabinets and pantries can also become cluttered with too many dishes, utensils and spices, but installing a Rev-A-Shelf basket from Lowe's makes it easy to keep things neat.

If you have a garage, you know it's tempting to simply stash away bulky or rarely used items in it, rather than find a space inside your home. But if you make a habit of doing this, you could eventually run out of room to park your car. To avoid that from clean. A few simple steps and inexpensive items can help. natural alternatives for adding ate a uniform look, but save time when meal prep is in full swing.

· You always have the option to build custom solutions, but sometimes that forces you to choose between style and functionality. If you'd rather not sacrifice one or the other, Lowe's offers a wide variety of products that allow you to have both. Ultimately, it's important to remember to not bite off more than you can chew. One of the biggest mistakes people make when decluttering is not setting realistic goals on the front end. Come up with a plan before diving in. Look at the room as a whole and then focus on one corner at a time. Once progress is being made, it will motivate you to keep going.

Healthy San Gabriel Valley Initiative Launches Just In Time For 2017

A multi-sector initiative paving the way for a healthier San Gabriel Valley

The Healthy San Gabriel Valley Initiative launched at the YWCA San Gabriel Valley Roadmaps and Intersections Forum: Systems, Social Determinants and Sustainability on December 1, 2016 at Citrus Valley Health Partners, Queen of the Valley Hospital. Over 80 people from a variety of different sectors such as business, non-profit, education, faith-based, behavioral health, healthcare, and law enforcement attended.

The Healthy San Gabriel Valley Initiative (HSGV) is an effort to create a synergistic effect among organizations in the San Gabriel Valley across sectors that include health care systems, education, government, business and non-profit, as well as community stakeholders. HSGV embraces the many assets of the region and also partners to address our most complex social issues across sectors.

The HSGV defines "health" broadly and it refers to a state of well-being across multiple dimensions such as economic, physical, social, and emotional, as well as the built environment experienced by individuals, families and neighborhoods.

HSGV's mission is to create a healthy, safe, and resilient San Gabriel Valley by creating a regional movement that engages communities and organizations committed to impactful crosssector collaboration, addressing our most complex community concerns.

The launch of HSGV and the Roadmaps and Intersections Forum was sponsored by First 5 LA, Los Angeles County Department of Public Health, City of Hope, Citrus Valley Health Partners, Kaiser Permanente, InSource Diagnostics, Bolton, Inc., Jan's Towing, Jonathan Starr, Remax Masters, Reynolds Buick-GMC-Izusu, Matt Denny's Restaurant and Capstone Pacific Investment Strategies, Inc.

By Dr. Lori LaCivita

For many people, the start of a new year is a time to reflect on where they are, what they've accomplished—and what they still need to do. While nearly half of Americans make New Year's resolutions, only 8 percent report being successful in achieving their goals, according to a study by The University of Scranton. There is hope, however, for those who want to turn their good intentions into something they can be proud of, anytime of the year.

Resolving to Succeed - The reality is, change takes time and can be difficult. There are advantages to thinking differently about goal-setting. For example, goals are not meant to be set only on January 1. Instead, make goalsetting a year-round initiative and include weekly, monthly and annual goals as part of the plan.

While explicitly writing down your goals can increase your chances for success tenfold, it's not an automatic result. Instead, reconsider your approach to goal-setting and keep in mind that perfection isn't realistic-strive for progress and improvement.

Tips for Successful Goals -Focus your efforts. Determine the outcome you want to achieve and focus your efforts toward that result. Some people come up with 10 goals and become so overwhelmed, they don't achieve any of them. Concentrate your energy and your goals can come into focus. Think small. Avoid such grandiose goals as losing 50 pounds. Instead, make short-term goals that lead to long-term goals, such as losing five pounds in three months. If you aim for something small and achievable that encourages you to reach your ultimate goal, the journey will be more manageable and therefore more successful. Be specific. The more distinct you make your goals, the clearer your path toward achieving them. When writing down goals, include a timeline and how you plan what the goal means to you and celebrate milestones of your progress along the way as you reach your goals.

happening, put a Kobalt cabinet or rail system in your garage to transform it into a functional storage space.

While closets aren't rooms, they can definitely become a cluttered nightmare. Some people think if the door can close, there's still room for storage. Don't let closets get to that point—you'll be a better person for it.

Here are a few additional tips for sprucing up your home while keeping it functional and orderly:

1. Rearrange furniture to maximize the space in each room.

• The sofa in the living room, the bed in the bedroom and the desk in the office demand the majority of space available. Arrange these pieces first.

• Don't place too many pieces of furniture in a small space. A love seat may work better than a full-size sofa depending on the size and shape of the room.

· When creating areas for conversation, keep furniture pieces within eight feet of each other so people can talk comfortably when seated. If possible, keep these pieces facing each other instead of side by side.

• With seating used for reading, remember to incorporate a light, whether it's a floor lamp or an end table with a lamp on it.

2. Create the illusion of space by adding lighting and mirrors.

• Lighting is a key element in opening up a space. If you're lucky enough to have natural light, let it shine in.

• Recessed spot lighting is visually appealing and is perfect for a small space.

• A torchère lamp is great for bouncing light off the ceiling and back down on the room.

• Skylights and solar tubes are light to a space.

3. Use storage products to help you get organized.

• Increase the appearance of

· If shelving and closet organization kits aren't enough, keep clothes in storage bins. If you have too much, hold a garage sale or donate items to charity. A good rule of thumb is if you haven't worn it in two years, it's time to let it go.

• Store your utensils in an orderly fashion. Inexpensive baskets and bins work for oddly shaped items or small appliances. Keep stemware, plates and bowls grouped by function, style and shape. This will not only cre-

Fiesta Floats Benefits From Glendora Talent

IRWINDALE- The Rose Parade floats require hundreds of hours of design, construction and decorating before they reach Colorado Boulevard for the five-mile trek in view of thousands of admiring spectators. Some might consider this magic. The outcome of the planning and execution must satisfy the expectations of sponsors who count on their message to be presented flawlessly. Hundreds of volunteers and the float makers' staffs work together to make this happen.

Fiesta Floats, a major float maker located in Irwindale, has two Glendora residents who have worked on the floats for years and typify the talent it takes to make the floats come to life. Sherrie Fowler and Terry Hubbard were found on New Year's Day ready for the Tournament of Roses judges to make their appearance and hopefully award their floats one of the trophies.

Sherrie, a 35-year Glendora resident, watched the Rose Parade as a little girl with her parents who would take her to the parade to celebrate her birthday which is on New Year's Day. In 1987 she started decorating floats as a Girl Scout volunteer leader. Later she continued her decorating as a Glendora Band booster as part of their fund raising. In 1993 Sherrie was hired by Fiesta to be a float decorating supervisor.

This year she was in charge of the Lucy Pet Foundation float. A real challenge as the float was the longest single chassis float ever in the parade at 126' long and at a Guinness Record 148,200 lbs. according to Joey Herrick, founder of the Lucy Pet Foundation. The float had a long water feature to enable a number of dogs to ride surf boards with the help of a wave making machine. The sides of the float were decorated with scenes of underwater plant life and beautiful fish. As the judges made their way around the float the onlookers cheered in appreciation. Sherrie had met her goal.

Terry has lived in Glendora since 1960 and after his retirement has worked for 10 years as a float decorating volunteer. Then the last 5 years he has been in the Fiesta Art Department working on a number of the floats insuring the initial design goals are executed. During the judging Terry could be seen and heard encouraging the crowd to clap and shout, hopefully influencing the judges' scoring.

These Glendora residents are examples of the kind of talent it takes to bring the floats to life. Their expressed enjoyment of this seasonal work leads one to believe you'll find them in the same location for the 2018 New Year.

In Loving Memory John Joseph Catalano

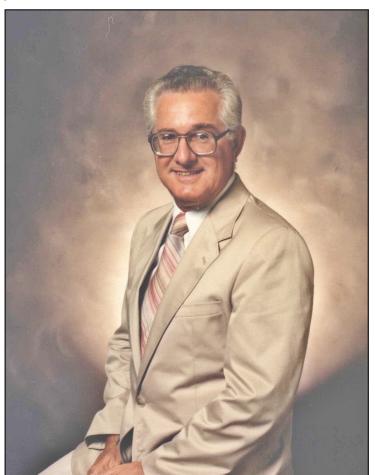

November 13, 1929 - January 6, 2017

by Michael Allawos

John Catalano and his wife Anita moved to Glendora in 1963 to raise and grow their family, and enjoy our wonderful Glendora close knit community. John was an only child, first generation Sicilian (big difference for John being Sicilian, I know being Sicilian myself). He was raised a devout Catholic in upstate New York where he attended Jesuit school and then later attended and graduated from Loyola University in Los Angeles.

John made Saint Dorothy Catholic Church his home where he was the coordinator for their Virtus program since its inception and providing training for the protection of children. John was also part of the RCIA (Right of Christian initiation for Adults), Saint Dorothy School Board and on the Finance committee for the homeless. He also served on numerous helping organizations, mentoring and just being there for those in need including the Priests.

I was fortunate to meet John in 2008 when I was asked by Saint Dorothy's Priest (Father John) to be the Chairman for the Oak Tree Festival for the next two years. I asked the parishioners who knows the right people to work with in our parish with over three thousand families. Everyone pointed to John. When I introduced myself to John and asked for his help he smiled and said "are you sure you want to do this". I said "yes" and after a moment he said "I'll help under one condition. We have to have fun doing it." The 2009 and 2010

Saint Dorothy's Oak Tree Festival broke all records and the community had fun. What I also learned shortly after meeting John was that he was my High School Principal at West Covina High and I never knew it until then.

John and I kept office hours (had breakfast) every Tuesday morning and sometimes on Sunday with his bride Anita. We both enjoyed our visit together over oatmeal talking about business and life in general but John really valued the brain wrestling that we did, he felt it kept him young, viable and still able to learn new things. John was a great listener and taught me many things for which I am deeply grateful. We joked about his patience or lack thereof but in his own way, he had the patience of a saint.

John was one of the original staff members at West Covina High School when it first opened, teaching science and later joining the administration as Principal for 20 years. After retiring in the Fall of 1984, John continued to teach, volunteer, and encourage his students, family & friends to be the best that they can be.

John headed up the Active Blind, Inc. that supplied equipment, training and loving support for those in need who were disabled due to blindness. In John's early years he too dealt with vision problems until he researched (as John often did) and found a specialist that could correct his condition.

John's faith, values, fidelity, traditions and family life gave him confidence, wisdom & love which he shared generously. In so many simple and profound ways, he enriched and affirmed others wherever he would go in only the way that John could.

In the last months of 2016, his health declined and John past
