LOS ANGELES COUNTY -

Ten educators were announced October 1 as the 2020-21 Los Angeles County Teachers of the Year, representing the best of the profession in the state's largest honors competition for K-12 educators.

Los Angeles County Office of Education (LACOE) Superintendent Debra Duardo presented the outstanding educators in a virtual ceremony broadcast on social media.

"During this time of extraordinary challenges to our school communities, it is especially important that we pay tribute to our outstanding teachers who, in the face of a pandemic, are bringing care, compassion and ingenuity to their virtual classrooms," Duardo said. "I am truly impressed by their innovative practices and the partnerships they are building to keep students learning and thriving."

The winning educators, comprised of seven women and three men, teach a range of grades and subjects at a diversity of school locales, including: Azusa, Baldwin Park, Burbank, Gardena, Los Angeles, Norwalk, Palmdale, Pearblossom, Redondo Beach and Santa Clarita. # Supervisor Kathryn Barger and the Dept. of Public Social Services Provide Backpacks, School Supplies and Books to Local Students

ALTADENA - Los Angeles County Supervisor Kathryn Barger joined Department of Public Social Services Director Antonia Jiménez and DPSS Toy Loan Program staff on Monday to distribute backpacks and school supplies to local children ages 5 through 17 at Farnsworth Park in Altadena.

Observing the requirements to wear masks and social distancing guidelines, participating families remained safely in their vehicles while DPSS Toy Loan staff placed the backpacks in their

"It's a privilege to equip the youth in our communities with the essential tools they need to be successful this school year," Supervisor Barger said. "Preparing a child for school can be costly for families, especially during these challenging times."

Barger acknowledged the fifth annual Backpack Giveaway's support of low-income families in L.A. County. She also commended the 85-year-old Toy Loan Program for its wellearned reputation as the largest and most successful free toylending library program in the nation.

Similar to book loans from a library, the program allows children to borrow toys by checking them out and returning them for a new one.

"The Board of Supervisors has supported the program since its creation in 1935 during the Great Depression as a free service to enrich the lives of low-income children," Barger said. "Children who participate develop a sense of responsibility by observing an honor code and merit system that rewards them when toys are returned on time and in good condition."

Los Angeles County Supervisor Kathryn Barger joined Department of Public Social Services Director Antonia Jiménez and DPSS Toy Loan Program staff to distribute backpacks and school supplies

Toy Loan Program serves approximately 30,000 children annually at more than 50 toy lending libraries housed at after school programs, community centers, nonprofit organizations and libraries throughout the county. There are five Centers located in the 5th Supervisorial District, including the Antelope Valley Kidz Connection, Covina Public Library, Glendale Didi Hirsch Mental Health Services, Mission College Child Development Center and the Santa Clarita Valley Community Center.

DPSS Director Antonia Jiménez added that all backpacks and school supplies were donated by County of L.A. employees, L.A. Public Library, private and corporate donors, and through a partnership with Amazon, which allowed online donations by visiting the Toy Loan Program's Amazon Smile wish list. Trader Joe's and Grocery Outlet Altadena were also on-site providing snacks to families and Shoes That Fit donated brand name footwear to every child in attendance. "Our department recognizes the increasing support that children need during this pandemic, Jiménez said. "We want to ensure they are prepared with the tools necessary for a successful school year."

How the November 2020 Election is Different and What We Can Do To Protect Our Votes

By Judy M. Nelson, Former Mayor of Glendora

In California, voting for the Nov. 3rd Presidential Election will be different from previous elections in several regards. A ballot will be mail to every registered voter in the State of California. Voters will still have the ability to vote in person, but polling place locations and the voting dates will

It is a concern that every registered voter will receive a mailed ballot because it increases the opportunity for fraud. Voter rolls have not been purged of those who have died, moved, or are some way incapacitated. Every person who receives a valid California driver's license is added to the voter rolls unless they state that they are not U.S. citizens or ask to opt-out. Such willy-nilly mailing of ballots provides the opportunity for someone else to use these ballots. Those who have passed away, moved, or don't wish to vote, will receive a mail-in ballot this year which provides the opportunity for someone else to use it.

Ballot harvesting was allowed by the California Legislation before the 2018 midterm elections. The law allows any representative to gather or "harvest" ballots. Both assistant living facilities and college campuses are ripe for harvest. The Los Angeles Times editorial board, along with others, has called for the law to be fixed or repealed, saying it "does open the door to coercion and fraud."

The danger of Ballot Harvesting is a bi-partisan concern. On September 17, 2020, Congresswoman Tulsi Gabbard, Democrat-Hawaii and Congressman Rodney Davis, Republican-Illinois, introduced The Election Fraud Protection Act in Congress. Rep. Gabbard wrote: "The strength of our democracy lies in the integrity of our elections. Ballot harvesting allows third parties to collect and tamper or sway an election for or against a certain candidate or party. No one should get in between a voter and their vote." Rep. Davis wrote: "We've seen ballot harvesting widely used in states like California and a recent court case in North Carolina outlined the clear opportunities for fraud and coercion with the ballot harvesting process." This bill will prohibit federal funding for states that allow ballot harvesting, thus encouraging all states to stop this prac-

Voting in person is the best way to ensure that your vote will be counted. Take your mailed ballot with you to your polling place, "surrender" it to the polling authority who will then give you an inperson ballot, cast your votes on-site, and place your completed ballot in the secure box provided.

Counties will vary on how they operate in-person voting and how they manage mail-in ballot processing. Your polling place will be listed on your ballot, or you can find it at your county's Registrar of Voters website.

This is a link to a document prepared by Election Integrity Project-California (EIPCa) that details plans for in-person voting for each county in California

https://www.eip-ca.com/letters/ 4%20voting%20plans%20for%20the%20state.pdf

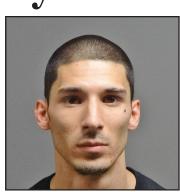

The Election Integrity Project is a non-partisan, non-profit 501(c)(3), public benefit corporation with the goal of enabling citizens to become active participants in the entire election process, from overseeing the integrity of the voter rolls to ensuring that each lawfully cast vote is counted and counted fairly and that all processes are in compliance with federal, state and local laws, statutes and regulations. For over nine years, it has trained over 10,000 citizens to observe, document, and research California elections.

Election Integrity Project suggests that voters: Check your registration at your county registrar's website and https://voterstatus.sos.ca.gov. Report any problems to EIPCa

- · Sign-up to track your ballot at WheresMyBallot.sos.ca.gov. This will help you prevent having your ballot used by someone else
- Mark your calendar: you should receive your ballot in the mail NO LATER THAN October 14
- If it has not arrived, call your Registrar's office IMMEDIATELY, report your ballot missing, and insist that it be cancelled and that you be mailed a new one: verify the mailing address
- Vote in person, if possible. It remains the best method to ensure that your vote is counted.
- If you cannot vote in person, turn your ballot in only to a staffed drop box that is emptied daily, a polling location, or your county elections office.

EIPCa needs volunteers to observe at the polls and to observe the mail-in ballot tabulating process. To volunteer, contact Election Integrity Project Ca at https://www.eip-ca.com/volunteer/. EIPCa is offering volunteer training that is no more than 90 minutes long and is conducted through zoom conference during election season.

With Credit Upgrade and Stable Outlook | Public Health Announces Timeline from Standard and Poor's City of Azusa Issues $70.1M in Pension Obligation Bonds - to Save Taxpayers over $54M

AZUSA - Standard & Poor's ("S&P") upgraded the City's credit rating on September 9 from "A+" to a "AA-", with a "Stable" outlook, amidst a global pandemic. The credit upgrade is a result of several strategic actions taken by the Azusa City Council to correct the City's structurally imbalanced budget and ensure financial obligations are met for years to come. S&P's stable outlook reflects their "view that the city's very strong reserves and management's focus on working toward sustainable budgetary balance will enable the city to maintain the current rating..."

Over the past 18 months Council received reports regarding the City's five-year budget forecast and Staff's ongoing Fiscal Sustainability Assessment efforts performed to ensure the City is: capturing all revenues per contractual agreements; maximizing revenue potential through contracts and franchise agreements; and running its operations as lean as possible without negatively impacting services to Azusa residents and businesses. In addition to successfully renegotiating contracts, Azusa residents voted and passed Measure Z on March 3, providing an additional $4.5M in annual sales tax revenues. Passage of Measure Z helps the City maintain good financial standing and helps deliver essential services to the Community while weathering the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

A major part of the Fiscal Sustainability Plan involved tackling long-term, costly retirement benefits. Yesterday the City paid off its $80 million Unfunded Accrued Liability "UAL" pension retirement debt to the California Public Employees' Retirement System "CalPERS" by issuing $70.1 million in general obligation bonds, and used cash on hand to fully fund its Utility Enterprises' (Electric, Water, and Sewer) debt of $10.7 million to reduce the amount of issuance. "Altogether, the issuance will generate average annual savings of approximately $2.7 million and overall savings of $54.1 million over the next 20 years. Savings will allow the City to tackle other long-term liabilities such as retiree medical and set funds aside for future increases in UAL," said Administrative Services Director, Talika M. Johnson.

City Staff provides regular financial updates to the City Council and forward-looking projections in order to get policy direction and maintain a proactive approach in meeting Community needs. "We are pleased to see that our financial discipline, good planning and hard work is reflected in an improvement to our credit rating," said Sergio Gonzalez, City Manager. "Furthermore, a stable outlook designation during these uncertain times, says a lot about our City's financial po-

Senator Chang Cracks Down on Price Gougers During Pandemic

Bill Stops Price Gouging on Essential Items

SACRAMENTO - Legislation to combat price gouging, coauthored by Senator Ling Ling Chang (R-Diamond Bar) and sponsored by Orange County District Attorney Todd Spitzer and San Diego County District Attorney Summer Stephan, was signed into law. SB 1196, tightens California law to assist law enforcement officials in prosecuting instances of price gouging that are committed by new sellers during an emergency.

"It's unconscionable to use a state of emergency for a quick buck," said Senator Chang. "I'm grateful the governor supported this bill, helping law enforcement prosecute perpetrators of price gouging. Californians shouldn't have to pay inflated prices for toilet paper or hand sanitizer. This bill ensures that price gougers cannot prey on consumers' in need of essential items."

"Exploiting the public's fear and panic is not a defense to engaging in criminal activity," said Orange County District Attorney Todd Spitzer. "Existing law left a loophole that allowed opportunists to take advantage of a crisis and overcharge customers for a product just because they had never sold that product before. This important legislation closes that loophole and ensures that those who shamelessly exploit people's vulnerabilities during a time of emergency are prosecuted. In this case we do not reward 'entrepreneurship.""

Under current law, price gouging is illegal and punishable by law during a declared state of emergency. However, the code hasn't been revisited in nearly 30 years, and while it prevents established sellers of specified goods from committing price gouging, it is silent to new sellers in a market place.

WEST COVINA - West Covina Police are requesting that if anyone has any information on a shooting in a parking lot of a motel in West Covina to give them a call and fill them with what you may know to help them get a picture of what happened.

Officers were called to the area of Fairfield Inn & Suites, 3211 E. Garvey Ave. North for a shooting around 5:45 p.m. on Saturday Sept, 26. Once they arrived, they did not see any subjects that could have been involved. However, they found 10 spent shell casings at the scene and they were recovered as evidence.

Police believe that the shooting occurred between the occupants of two vehicles. As for any descriptions of the vehicles, they were not released. At this time, there have been no reports of injuries at any of the hospitals.

The investigation is continuing hoping that someone will shed some light on what happened.

Board Approves Supervisor Barger's Motion To Explore Creating A Veteran Suicide Review Team

LOSANGELES COUNTY-The Board of Supervisors approved a motion by Supervisor Kathryn Barger and coauthored by Supervisor Sheila Kuehl to begin sharing data about veteran suicides between the Department of Veterans Affairs and Los Angeles County and explore the possibility of establishing a countywide veteran suicide review team.

"I am grateful for the collaboration of our community and government partners who are working every day to ensure we help veterans and their families access services that save and enrich their lives," Supervisor Barger said. "Destigmatizing mental health issues is a crucial step in order to stop veteran suicide in Los Angeles County."

The Department of Veterans Affairs notes that nationwide, 20 veterans die by suicide every day. Los Angeles County needs additional data to better understand how this issue affects veterans

"It is an anguishing reality that men and women who have put their lives at risk as veterans of the U.S. military are at high risk of suicide as civilians," said Supervisor Sheila Kuehl. "Data collection and data sharing among all agencies addressing veteran suicide is crucial to effectively providing the best possible mental health services for LA County veterans."

The Board of Supervisors sought to address this issue by allocating funding for the Veteran Peer Access Network through the Department of Mental Health.

In collaboration with community organizations and the United States and California Departments of Veterans Affairs, Los Angeles County is working to amplify existing efforts and gain clarity on the mental health crises veterans face in our region.

A suicide review board would enable Los Angeles County to expand prevention efforts and services with the help and recommendations of experts in diverse

"I'm grateful to be at the forefront of such groundbreaking domestic violence policy, and I look forward to working with my partners and allies to spread coercive control legislation across the nation," Senator Rubio said. "I thank Governor Newsom for signing this bill. My hope is that it empowers victims to come forward, and it becomes something that our society understands and recognizes as domestic violence.'

"SB 1141 advances the rights of domestic violence victims under State law. My office was proud to sponsor the legislation, and I thank the Governor for signing the bill," said Los Angeles City Attorney Mike Feuer.

Senator Chang Enhances Protection for Domestic Violence Survivors

SACRAMENTO - Legislation to expand protections for survivors of domestic violence, coauthored by Senator Ling Ling Chang (R-Diamond Bar), was signed into law. Senate Bill 1141 expands the definition of domestic violence in the law to include threatening force or intimidation, depravation of basic needs, and coercive control.

"Unfortunately, we've seen horrifying spikes in domestic violence during this pandemic," said Senator Ling Ling Chang. "Like COVID-19, domestic abuse isn't always visible or limited to physical violence and it's time we updated the law to reflect that reality. I'm pleased the governor signed this crucial piece of legislation that provides much needed legal tools for survivors."

Senate Bill 1141 would add "coercive control" to domestic violence law. Examples of coercive control include: Isolating the victim from friends, relatives, or other support; depriving the victim of basic necessities; controlling the victim's communications, daily behavior, finances, economic resources, and many other behaviors that cause severe emotional distress.

Before and during the pandemic, Senator Chang has advocated on behalf of the most vulnerable, authoring SB 1123 to help law enforcement agencies respond to elderly abuse. She also urged the Legislative Audit Committee to approve a comprehensive audit of the California Health and Human Service Agency as it relates to their oversight of Skilled Nursing Facilities.

S.F. Mayor, City Attorney Endorse Jackie Lacey

Los Angeles County voters will be making a critical decision on the November 3rd ballot. Return a law and order - tough on crime incumbent, Jackie Lacey, to the District Attorney's Office or someone who subscribes to the Open Society Foundation, George Soros platform, of soft on crime and, a drug policy that supports eliminating the war on drugs and switching to a policy of protecting the "safety and health of users, rather than suppression" like challenger George Gascon?

Soros and his PACS have contributed $2.5 million to Gascon's campaign against Lacey.

San Francisco Mayor, London Breed and City Attorney Dennis Herrera, have endorsed Jackie Lacey for L.A. County District Attorney over their former District Attorney George Gascon. Herrera has announced lawsuits against drug dealers in the Tenderloin area to stop "the open-air drug dealing" that caused a 70% increase in deaths during Gascon's term.

Jackie Lacey is the first woman and first African-American to serve as Los Angeles County District Attorney. She joined the Office in 1986 as a deputy district attorney and in 2011, was named Chief Deputy District Attorney - second-in-command to Republican D.A Steve Cooley who has endorsed her.

George Gascon has left San Francisco mired in high crime numbers. Michelle Hanisee, President, Association Deputy District Attorneys, says, "He's proud ... he diverted young adults up to age 25 away from prison, expunged their past marijuana convictions and therefore reduced incarceration rates."

- San Francisco's murder rate was higher-5.7 per 100,000 compared to L.A. County's 6.4 per 100,000.
- · San Francisco's violent crime rate was 715 per 100,00 compared to L.A. County's 577 per 100,000.
- San Francisco's property crime rate was 6,168 per 100,000 compared to L.A. County's 2,443 per 100,000.

The huge difference in property crime rates are indicative of those on drugs trying to find the money to support that habit.

Tony Montoya, President, San Francisco Police Officers Association, said, "We are praying for the residents of Los Angeles, hoping that George Gascón does not do to their city what he did to San Francisco during his tenure: double-digit increases in crime, author of Proposition 47 that created our criminal justice revolving door, cars broken into by the thousands and neighborhoods ravaged by open air drug markets

George Gascon was co-author of Prop 47 reducing felonies to misdemeanors, including possession of heroin, cocaine and methamphetamine, and allowing persons already convicted of crimes to petition for early release from incarceration reducing prison population by 13,000 and putting them back on our streets.

George Gascon has Gov. Gavin Newsom to thank for his rise in politics.

- 2009, San Francisco Mayor, Gavin Newsom, appointed him as San Francisco Chief of Police.
- 2011, Newsom appointed him San Francisco District At-

With 2 ½ months left in his term as San Francisco's D.A., Gascon resigned to "explore" a run for L.A County D.A. San Francisco Chronicle reported just days before Gascon's resignation, an independent expenditure committee started the "Run George Run" campaign with a billboard outside Jackie Lacey's office. That committee had already raised "six-figures-plus" to back Gascon.

Mayor London Breed appointed candidate Suzy Loftus, to fill Gascon's vacated seat until after the election. Loftus lost that election to Chesa Boudin, 85,950 votes to 83,511. The Chronicle reports on Boudin's background saying Boudin's parents, members of the Weather Underground, were jailed for murder after taking part in an armored car robbery leaving him raised in Chicago by Weather Underground leaders Bill Ayers and Bernardine Dohrn. Boudin went on to work for Venezuela's now-deceased socialist President, Hugo Chávez, before coming to San Francisco.

George Soros, 90-year old Hungarian immigrant, has taken millions of his $8.3 billion fortune to promote his political philosophy by funneling campaign donations through tax-exempt groups and PACs. His top priority has been challenging district attorney offices nationwide and is now targeting the L.A County D.A. race and Jackie Lacey.

Erika D. Smith, Sacramento Bee, 5/18/18, reported: "During the last election cycle, Soros dumped more than $3 million on district attorney candidates in six states, flipping seats in Louisiana and Mississippi. In 2014, his Open Society Foundation gave the American Civil Liberties Union a $50 million grant to elect progressive prosecutors in big cities with large jail populations."

Soros became involved in Sacramento County's D.A. race when incumbent Anne Marie Schubert contributed $23,194 in 2018 to support the initiative fixing "flaws" in Prop. 47. Her opponent, Noah Phillips, received $400,000 from California Justice & Public Safety PAC, a Soros organization. Schubert did win that race, but the initiative, Violent Crime Definition, DNA Collection, and Parole Initiative, failed to qualify for the ballot because several county registrars were not able to verify the signatures in time for the ballot. The initiative is back as Prop 20 on the November ballot.

In 2018, San Diego, Republican Interim D.A., Summer Stephan, faced the same onslaught from PACs supporting Democrat Geneviéve Jones-Wright. San Diego Union Tribune reported Soros and his California Justice & Public Safety PAC contributed $402,459 in TV ads, campaign mailings with final numbers in support of Jones-Wright reaching $848,853.50.

When Garcetti and Schiff pulled back their endorsements of Lacey, John Phillips, Orange County Register, wrote, "So they want to fire the successful black woman and replace her with a white guy to end racism."

The Sea

A break from the election

Wendy and I have a long-time affectionate relationship with the sea. Wendy was born and grew up in a seaside community south of Melbourne, Australia. I lived in Philadelphia, but year after year we spent the week of Dad's vacation at Ocean City, New Jersey. A couple of other times Dad and I would fish for flounders in Barnegat Bay, renting a rowboat for a dollar.

When my Son, John Mark, was a Junior in high school, he was able to spend the year on a three-mast ocean-going schooner. I had taken a very part-time job recruiting faculty for "The Oceanics," (an alternative highschool.) My salary consisted of a berth for John. What a deal!! When John graduated from a public high school the following year, he attended a merchant marine college. Following graduation he worked as a mate on a great LNG (liquid natural gas) ship. I lived in constant fear that he would be killed when the thing blew up somewhere in the Persian Gulf where we were engaged in a very dangerous war. But no, during his yearly vacation John and two cousins were killed when their rented airplane crashed on takeoff. While that has been almost forty years ago, I still grieve. John lives just beyond my right shoulder and at unexpected moments appears-- and my grief is renewed. Years later Wendy and I found ourselves in northwest Missouri, as far as you could get from the sea. One summer when Wendy was visiting her daughter in a village on the coast of Maine, she called about a wooded acreage which was on the Penobscot

Charles H. Bayer

Bay. We agreed to buy it and planned to build a modest seacoast cabin. There is an eightfoot tide in that part of the world, and Wendy had seen the property at high tide. When I saw the property at low tide two years later, instead of the sea I was confronted with a great mud flat. That year we were able to sell the acreage at twice our purchase

The week of the sale I encountered a lobster fisherman who told me that he was about to move from his simple seaside house to a nearby mobile park. That afternoon we purchased his house, and for the next few summers we journeyed from Missouri to Castine, Maine where we also became owners of a 26-foot sailboat we renamed the JOHN MARK.

When subsequently I retired from my marvelous Missouri pastorate, we became missionaries assigned to teach in an Australian theological college. After a five-year assignment we decided to return to the USA where we were to take up residence in a church-oriented retirement community. We made the trip home aboard a container vessel that took twenty-nine days to cross the Pacific.

Now we were back in California, an hour from the ocean, but alas, in these twenty years we only rarely got to see it My older daughter, Carol, had become a psychiatrist, retired early, and lived with her partner on a sailboat on Catalina Island off the southern California coast. A few years ago she died of lung cancer doubling my grief.

But I still remain fascinated by the sea. I have painted a series of American lighthouses, and used them in a community vesper service. I still resonate with John Masefield who wrote;

I must down to the seas again, to the lonely sea and the sky,

And all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by;

And the wheel's kick and the wind's song and the white sail's shaking,

And a grey mist on the sea's face, and a grey dawn breaking. I must down to the seas again, for the call of the running tide Is a wild call and a clear call that may not be denied;

And all I ask is a windy day with the white clouds flying,

And the flung spray and the blown spume, and the sea-gulls crying.

I must down to the seas again, to the vagrant gypsy life, To the gull's way and the whale's way where the wind's like a whetted knife; And all I ask is a merry yarn from a laughing fellow-rover, And quiet sleep and a sweet dream when the long trick's

What are we doing to the sea? Tune in next week.

Urgent Plea To Left, Right: No Civil War

By Ralph E. Shaffer

As this country stands on the brink of a civil war, one that will decimate a divided United States, we appeal to activists, left and right, to avoid that war no matter what.

Not since 1861 have Americans faced such a calamity. But the destruction that took place in that Civil War was confined largely to the South. This time, every hamlet, town and metropolis in America will be ravaged in the fighting that follows the turmoil over this presidential election if either side resorts to force in response to an electoral outcome they won't ac-

In 2000, Al Gore wisely, though prematurely, chose to concede to George Bush as a means of preventing violence.

The stakes are much higher in 2020 and the potential for violence is far greater. But can we expect either a Biden or a Trump to follow the precedent set by Gore and concede, coupled with a call for peace?

That's not the Trump style. He has refused to agree to a peaceful transition of power should the election go to Biden, implying that such a victory for the Democrats would come only from a rigged election. That's a virtual call to arms, and the right-wing militias have already demonstrated their dedication to armed force by marching in the streets. Even one of Trump's advisors has urged the president's followers to arm themselves and buy ammunition.

The left is not far behind, although at this point, they haven't organized armed units as has the right. But the violent actions - fires, looting, and barricades - that have followed peaceful protests over police use of unnecessary lethal force point to a left that will not passively accept a Trump electoral victory they will see a usurpation.

Biden may not be able to control his outraged supporters if Republicans state legislatures refuse to certify Biden electors, throwing the election into the House where Trump has a majority of state votes. Or, if the electoral college does choose Biden and Trump refuses to leave office, it is unlikely that Democrats will allow him to stay there by peacefully accepting a fait accompli.

Regardless of what scenario takes place on and after election day, the animosities that have arisen between Americans right and left in the past few months have made the likelihood of war greater than the present danger from Covid-19. We've lost over 200,000 Americans to the virus. We will lose millions in the coming civil war if it is not prevented by wise leadership, left and right.

Our great cities will be in ruins. Industrial production will cease. Starvation will be rampant. Those who today are dismayed because kids can't have in person teaching at the schools will find that there are no schools at all. Neighbors will turn on neighbors. No section, no community will be spared.

Better dead than Red or Blue? Tell that to the millions of dead Syrians! Here it may be tens of millions of dead Americans.

Left wing cities like San Francisco, Los Angeles and New York will be decimated, but so will Trump places like Idaho Falls, Gatlinburg and Abilene. We may not have used A-bombs in foreign wars after 1945, but don't bet against their use, along with lethal gas, against our own people.

Canada's population will double almost overnight as Americans flee north. Mexico will become the home for many Americans who had denounced refugees seeking asylum in our country.

The nation will be in chaos for years to come if the leadership of left and right do not call for calm. Trump supporters must accept a Biden victory without resorting to obvious sham efforts to block his inauguration. Biden voters must accept the constitutional rules for deciding a presidential election, regardless of how they feel about the winner.

Failure to accept the election results, whatever they are, will mean the end of the American nation. We will have survived longer than Stalin's Soviet Union and Hitler's Third Reich, but we will be, like them, an historical footnote.

This is not the future reasonable Americans want for their children and grandchildren.

Ralph E. Shaffer is professor emeritus of history at Cal Poly Pomona.

There Is A New Civil War Raging In The United States Of America

Let there be no mistake we are at war. A war with ourselves! A war between the forces for freedom and self-reliance and the armies of enslavement. Enslavement to a Marxist Socialist form of government.

The battle raging the political arena of today is not unlike the one raging just before the Civil War that ravaged this nation in the 1860's. In that time the Democrat party wanted to maintain the institution of slavery. A horrible institution that enslaved people to the plantations of the, mostly southern, aristocrats of that day. The plantation owners believed that they needed slavery to remain the leading supplier of cotton around the globe. "Cotton is king" was the motto of the day.

Abraham Lincoln, ran on the anti-slavery platform of the Republican Party. With Lincoln's election the southern slave states saw their vision of prosperity being threatened. Soon after Lincoln was inaugurated the Southern Democrats, who controlled the south and supported slavery as a divine right, took action to overturn the elec-though there is no open armed conflict today would that be an impossibility? Out of the question? NO it is not.

There are plantations in this country today! When I refer to a plantation one might query, what plantation am I referring to? Let me explain. If you get all your income from a single source and you have no way to break this bond of dependency, you are enslaved to that power. If you rely totally on government programs for your survival, you are enslaved, on the government's plantation. How different are the inner cities, where all too many people subsist solely on government programs, from plantations? Even Barrack Obama called the inner cities plantations.

Not unlike the Democrats of the 18690's the Democrats of today are in revolt. They are revolting because they see their vision of a Marxist socialist (utopian) state dissolving before their eyes. Members of the Democrat Party were the slaveholders in the pre-Civil War era and they are the slaveholders of the welfare state of today.

One can argue that not all

My Prospective: By D.B. Shimel tion. A Civil War ensued. Al- Democrats think this way but the Socialist Democrats certainly do. Programs like, universal health care and a minimum wage even if you don't work, are nothing but socialistic programs hiding under the banner of social justice programs. Once again I refer you back to Joseph Stalin's "useful idiots" agenda that I wrote about in a previous article. Stalin useful idiot's dogma of how to achieve a socialist takeover by creating government dependence, is in play today.

The Democrat nominee for President Joe Biden, once told a gathering of black people "they want to put you back in chains". He was referring to the Republicans. If any political party wants to put people back in the chains of dependence, it is the Socialist Democrats. The only explanation for why the Democrats choose a life of dependency for Americans is that dependency on the government gives more power for those in power. The reasoning goes, if you are dependent on a political party for your living you will vote to keep that party in

cent writings, this apparently benevolent endowment of, social welfare programs hides the draconian takeover of our country by a Marxist socialist/ communist form of government. Fortunately, for America, along came President Donald J. Trump, who has upset the proverbial apple cart. Before the pandemic, President Trump and his administration, had taken millions of people off government programs and returned their freedom to choose. Freedom to choose prosperity or government dependency. Freedom to choose a life of independence and self-reliance. Freedom from a life of dependency to be controlled by government bureaucrats and poli-

This pandemic will pass but will the reliance on government handouts? Prosperity will return when the people are allowed to go back to work.

In this election you are not voting for a Democrat or a Republican - Trump or Biden you are voting for freedom or enslavement.

Vote wisely, America's future and yours are in the balance.

"TIME JOCKEY" - Achilles

By Joe Castillo Myth and Injury... Oh, to be young once again! To be healthy, athletic, care-free and most of all independent. When we were young, our body could take a lot more than it could after we aged. Youth is so hard to let go of; it's even harder to accept that we're getting older and all the limitations that come with it. But when you're just about 30 years-old and think vou can still do things that you did when you were 20, you may want to just think about it a little more, especially if you want to play a sport like basketball. Well, my nearly 30year-old son tried to do just that and experienced the ultimate injury for an aging wanna-be basketball player, he torn his Achilles tendon! A popping sound, a sharp pain, immediate disability, and the inability to do something simple like walking is what happens when the Achilles is torn.

The Achilles tendon is the strong fibrous chord that connects the muscles from the back of one's calf to the ankle bone. It's what allows your heel to bend whenever you take a step. A full or partial tear will severely limit your ability to take a step, walk, run or even jump. The Achilles tendon is a major part of one's body and an injury to the tendon is considered a major injury. But the significance of the injury goes all the way back to Greek mythology and the mythological god by the name of Achilles. His father was Peleus, king of the Myrmidons and his mother was Thetis, a sea nymph. When Achilles was born, his mother wanted to protect him so she held him by his heal and dipped his body into the river Styx, which was located in the underworld and its waters held special powers. Achilles took on the attributes of a half-god with his only weakness being the spot where his mother held him when she dipped him in

As he grew up, Achilles became a great warrior who would become the leader of the superior fighting group of Myrmidons. Achilles could not be defeated and when the Greeks attacked Troy, it was Achilles who led the assault, would eventually defeat the greatest Trojan warrior, Hector, and used the disguised Trojan Horse to breakthrough the impenetrable fortress of Troy. Just when it looked like Achilles would become the hero of battle, he suffered a fatal injury. The war had started when

Helen, the wife of Greek King Menelaus, was taken by Trojan Prince Paris back to Troy and the Greeks went to Troy to bring her back. As the fighting continued within the Fortress of Troy, Paris tried to protect Helen and defend Troy at the same time. When he encountered Achilles, Paris only had his bow and arrow, and with the help of the Greek God Apollo, he shot his arrow at the one spot which Achilles was vulnerable. It was the heel where his mother had held him at the river Styx. Paris shot multiple arrows at Achilles' heel, disabling him, and then finished him off with an array of other well-placed arrows. Thus, the myth of the Greek God Achilles lives within all of us, it is our one vulnerable spot where one will be instantly disabled if it fails, the Achilles ten-

So, before you decide to go out and play some basketball especially if you're over 30 years old, you better think about Achilles. If a half-god who became the greatest warrior of his time, has a weak spot of vulnerability, so could all of us ....

Watched the Debate Late Week. Awesome, but Not... Read On.

I decided to bring up the recorded televised presidential debate and watch it again. I must say, these two guys in the debate were very respectful to each other and often gave each other accolades for what they have done in the past and what they hoped they would do if they were elected President of the United States.

The moderator, Howard K. Smith, did not have to intervene with either candidate as they respectfully concluded each comment and answers to questions during the allotted time for each. This was an extremely very honorable debate with respect by the two candidates.

If you think I am talking about the recent debate with Trump and Biden... now come on, you should know better. I am talking about the "first" ever televised debate for the President of the United States between Vice President Richard Nixon and Senator John F. Kennedy. The moderator was Howard K. Smith.

Take time to watch this piece of history on YouTube. Look under "Nixon Kennedy Debate". It is about an hour long. You will be impressed. I also highly recommend that both Trump and Biden to watch this same debate as well. Not just once, but at least a dozen times to see how "they" should react and conduct themselves in the same manner. However, we all know that this will never hap-

So, this Biden/Trump debate was a total train wreck and a total embarrassment to our nation. Chris Wallace was an absolute joke. He showed "no manhood" while trying to gain control of this debate... (if you want to call it that). Leaders from around the world watched this and I am sure they are still on their backs laughing their asses off.

Although I found this hilarious, it also was very disgusting. It totally went out of control with both men interrupting each other as well as flinging crap at each other. My respect level for both of these guys dropped. We have the president being called a clown and being told "aw just shut up" and "be quite" by Biden, which, to be honest, I couldn't blame him. Trump wouldn't shut up to allow Biden to talk. It was also the other way around as well. Now who really won this debate? Well, if you are talking about who interrupted the most, then it would be Trump.

Both these guys lost and so did the people watching. Personal family attacks, name calling, a useless moderator and accusations that somehow the Democrats actually contaminated Trump's debate podium with the Corona Virus so he would get sick. I strongly doubt this happened, but you never know.

I have stated on social media that the next debate should have both of these candidates in sound proof glass cubicles. Each cubicle will have a microphone that can be turned on and off by the moderator. Each cubicle will allow the candidate to hear the other candidate and the moderator. If you have one candidate that's trying to over talk the other one, the moderator can simply turn off the mic and we can just watch their lips move.

I am sure we all can't wait for the next debate. Steve Scully, will be the next moderator, hopefully he learned something from the first debate.

Now, on the 7th of October, the Vice President candidates will have their debate. My question is, what the hell for?

The only thing that I can see coming from the next debate(s) is another train wreck with two casualties, both, Trump and

Historic Electric Bus Manufacturing and Workforce Partnerships Announced

LOS ANGELES - On the heels of California Gov. Gavin Newsom's landmark commitment to zero-emission transportation, the Los Angeles County Department of Workforce Development, Aging, and Community Services (WDACS), Proterra, United Steelworkers (USW) Local 675, Jobs to Move America, and Citrus College marked 'Manufacturing Day' by announcing historic investments into the development of a high-quality, highly skilled, electric bus manufacturing workforce.

The investments include a first-of-its-kind workforce training program in advanced electric bus manufacturing, and Proterra and USW Local 675's first Collective Bargaining Agreement, ensuring worker voice and representation remain central to the long-term health and success of the company.

"Creating sustainable communities starts with education that leads to a well-paying career," said Supervisor Kathryn Barger. "I am pleased that Citrus College, located in the Fifth District, collaborated with the private sector to train our workforce to fill modern, high-tech jobs that are desperately needed. This partnership between the public, private, education, and labor sectors is a model for success and a livable future."

"These agreements represent the future of the LA County workforce," said Otto Solórzano, Acting Director of LA County WDACS. "We have brought all partners to the table - public, private, labor, education - to create good-paying careers for traditionally underrepresented workers. In line with the Governor's actions and the direction of the Board of Supervisors, LA County is building the technology and the workforce needed for a sustainable future."

The Electric Bus Manufacturing Technology training program, which welcomes its first cohort of students on October 9, was developed to advance diversity, equity, inclusion, and job quality in the green manufacturing sector by targeting historically underrepresented groups with barriers to employment. The customized, nine-week training program taught by Citrus College was designed in partnership with production and assembly management at Proterra, a leading innovator in heavy-duty electric transportation, and will help fill union jobs manufacturing battery-electric buses at Proterra's

City of Industry facility.

"Electric vehicle technology is an opportunity to strengthen American manufacturing and create good paying, skilled jobs for Californians," said Jack Allen, Proterra CEO and Chairman.

"Citrus College is excited to be a part of this new training program," said Michael Wangler, Dean of Career, Technical and Continuing Education at Citrus College. "Our automotive and diesel faculty were eager to help build this customized curriculum that will benefit the community, the environment and the local economy."

Proterra and USW Local 675 also announced the signing of their first collective bargaining agreement. The collective bargaining agreement sets clear requirements on how workers' voices will inform the development of training programs, working conditions, safety, and other important factors affecting working conditions. In 2019, Proterra signed Los Angeles County's Fair Chance Pledge to incorporate Fair Chance hiring practices into the company's recruitment process and promote the full participation of justiceinvolved individuals in our econ-

This partnership will further help Los Angeles County reach the goals outlined in its Sustainability Plan, as well as the recent Board of Supervisors' motion for High Road Training Partnerships between industry, labor, community, and local colleges.

Don't Forget How Good Things Were Before the Pandemic

Thanks to the Wuhan (Covid19) virus, combined with social unrest, everyone I talk to says they will not miss 2020. America was well on its way to unprecedented growth among all strata of society until the China virus invaded the world. Even if 2020 turns into somewhat of a lost year due to the Wuhan Virus lockdowns and related economic challenges, hopefully America can pick up in early 2021 where we left off in early 2020.

Friday's news that President Trump as well as First Lady Melania both tested positive for COVID-19 is not good. While this development will certainly impact his re-election campaign for the next two weeks, hopefully they will both recover fully and return to important in person events during the second half of this month. While our President recovers most of us should still be able to remain focused on America's economy and protecting our cherished personal freedoms. Considering all that the Trump administration has accomplished since his election in November 2016, what letter grade would you give the Trump Administration for their accomplishments through January 2020? I personally think they should receive an A. Consider just a few of the accomplishments this exceptional team has achieved!

Median 2019 household income was $68,703, an increase of 6.8% from the 2018 median of $64,324. The $4,379 increase in 2019 was greater than the entire eight years under Barack Obama's Presidency. This also was the fifth consecutive annual increase in real median household income for family households. More importantly, 2019 real median incomes of all ethnic categories significantly increased, with gains by Blacks (+7.9%), Foreign-born (+8.5%), Asians (+10.6%), and Hispanics (+7.1%), all of which exceeded percentage gains by Whites (+5.7%). Also, median earnings increased +7.8% for all employed women compared to +2.5% for men, closing the gen-

The official poverty rate in 2019 was 10.5%, down 1.3 points from 11.8% in 2018. This was the fifth consecutive annual decline in poverty! Since 2014, the poverty rate has fallen 4.3 percentage points. The recent 10.5% 2019 poverty rate is the lowest rate observed since estimates were first published in 1959. The poverty rate for Whites decreased 1.0 percentage point to 9.1%. The poverty rate for Blacks decreased by 2.0 percentage points to 18.8%. The poverty rate for Hispanics decreased by 1.8 percentage points to 15.7%. The poverty rate for Asians decreased 2.8 percentage points to 7.3%. The poverty rate for people under age 18 decreased 1.8 percentage points to 14.4%. While there is still a poverty gap between races, that gap was the smallest ever and is closing fast! There is another recent myth that the fake news folks are trying to sell us - that the middle class is disappearing. Well, it's half true, since many people considered to have been in the middle class have been moving up to the richer segment of society, not falling into poverty. Adjusted for inflation, those earning $100,000 or more in 2019 dollars grew from barely 10% in 1967 to 34% in 2019, with a significant bump in the years 2018 and 2019. There was an equal drop in the number of poor and middle class in both 2018 and 2019! That upward economic movement is very good news, but you will never hear it from Bernie Sanders.

Consider the dramatic increases in American's take home incomes since the December 2017 tax rate cuts took effect in 2018. Economic gains during 2018 and 2019 dramatically promoted many middle-class people into higher brackets, as well as reducing poverty levels! As a result of a stronger economy and lower tax rates, 2019 enjoyed a record-high 43.8 million U.S. households (34.1% of all households) earning $100,000 or more, while also accomplishing a record-low 25.4% of households earning $35,000 or less. This has to be seen as great progress. Do you recall reading this good news anywhere in any newspaper or Web outlet or cable news outlet recently?

Based on this array of data, it was likely that Donald Trump would have easily won re-election next month. But then a certain bug out of China had other ideas. Americans may return to this 2018 and 2019 winning formula in 2021 if Trump is reelected - or not. But however you vote, don't believe the scaremongers who say the middle class has been disappearing into poverty during the Trump administration!

Your Money - Ask Julia

What are my choices on what to do with an IRA I'm inheriting?

The SECURE Act has changed the rules for IRAs inherited in 2020 and thereafter. This is important for those planning to leave an IRA to a beneficiary, as well as for those inheriting that IRA. If you are inheriting this IRA from a spouse, you have the most choices. If you are NOT one of the exceptions (spouse, minor child, disabled, chronically ill, not more than 10 years younger than the deceased), you will be required to receive payouts over a maximum of 10 years. Find out, as soon as possible, their RMD (Required Minimum Distribution) status. If there is a large amount in the IRA, this will probably bump you into a higher tax bracket. Consult with a CPA. All of my retirement savings is in my 401(k) at work, and is all in the stock market. I'm stressed about what the economy could look like in the next 4 years. I'm close to retirement, so I don't have time for my retirement account balance to recover from a big loss. Partial withdrawals are not allowed, so I cannot move the money. What can I do? Contact your HR department and get connected with a financial professional of the investment company that actually holds your 401(k). Among other things, it might be suggested that you re-allocate (from riskier to safer). You could consider the option to stop adding money to your 401(k), pay the taxes on that additional income while you are employed, and save the difference. This savings could be put into a savings account, CD's, a fixed or fixed-index annuity, or a fixed-index life insurance poli-

My CDs mature this month, and the taxes on the growth means I net zero earnings. I want my money to be safe, I want more growth, and I want to pay less taxes. Do you have anything that can give me what I want?

Banks now hold billions of dollars in CD funds. Folks invest in bank CDs for the safety - CDs are FDIC insured and people trust their banks. As you have discovered, the rate of return is low, and you must annually pay taxes on the growth. An alternative to investing with your bank is investing with insurance companies. The strength of the insurance company plays an important role in the safety of your investment dollars. Independent agencies, like A.M. Best and Standard & Poor's, rate and make public "grades" on each insurance company. Insurance companies offer a product that historically may outperform a CD because of higher rates along with the benefit of deferring taxes until accessing those funds. Also, there are ways to access funds in certain life insurance policies, tax free, while you are living.

How can we be more financially prepared for disasters?

Putting aside, for a moment, the emotions and basic physical needs of food, water, shelter, medical care, and personal protection, it is also important to think about being more financially prepared in case of a disaster. In the case of loss of life, there are always survivors who wish their loved one had more life insurance. In the case of 'natural' disasters (hurricanes, tornados, earthquakes, fires, etc.), homeowners or renters insurance helps. It can also be helpful to have an easily accessible stash of cash. (ATMs use electricity and can run out of money.) It's also good to stockpile supplies (e.g. toilet paper, coffee, first aid items) to trade for items someone else has available. Keep in mind that if this nation's economy, or even the global economy crashes, we're all going to be in the same survival situation.

Supervisors Allow Breweries and Wineries to Re-Open for Outdoor Service

LOSANGELES COUNTY

- The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors approved a motion authored by Supervisor Janice Hahn and co-authored by Supervisor Kathryn Barger which will allow breweries and wineries to begin outdoor service in one week, in accordance with current State health orders.

The State of California has allowed breweries and wineries to reopen for outdoor service if they partner with a thirdparty permitted food vendor. However, the County of Los Angeles has not permitted breweries and wineries that do not have restaurant licenses to resume service. While several breweries and wineries do have restaurant licenses and small kitchens, many do not and have been struggling to survive.

"This is an important step forward for businesses and employees throughout the County," said Supervisor Kathryn Barger, who co-authored the motion. "As our case numbers have decreased, I have championed for breweries and wineries to reopen safely with necessary health protocols and guidance in place. I am pleased to have the opportunity to collaborate to seek solutions that will help support our communities."

Supervisor Hahn's motion, which was read-in during the Board meeting, allows breweries and wineries to re-open in alignment with the State's health order in one week. The reopening shall abide by strict safety guidelines, including but not limited to: outside operations, limited hours of operation, required reservations, appropriate social distancing, and all appropriate safety measures. The motion passed with a vote of 3-2.

October Car Care

Twice a year the Car Care Council, a non-profit organization, celebrates National Car Care Month. This happens in April and again in October. The reason they feel the need to spend money on advertising the importance of car care is because so many consumers don't take care of their vehicles properly.

Neglect of this kind causes accidents, expensive breakdowns, pollution, using more fuel than necessary and even lost time at work! The Car Care Council hopes a gentle reminder twice yearly will prevent all this.

Here is a check list for safety, dependability and savings!

· Have all fluids checked

- Have air filter checked
- Have battery and charging system checked
- Have belts and hoses
- Have oil and lubrication ser-
- Have all lights checked
- Have all wipers and fluid checked
- Have tires checked for proper inflation and tread
- Have suspension system checked
- Have brake system checked Many consumers feel a false sense of security today because they have cell phones or On-Star so they are able to call someone for help. Yes...these are great when you need them but of course avoiding a breakdown or accident due to neglect or not to pollute the air or use more gas than necessary is a better choice.

If you have been putting off service or repair; call your car care provider today and not only will you be driving a safer, more eco-friendly vehicle, you will save money in the long run!

California Bill Requiring Diversity on Corporate Boards Signed into Law

SACRAMENTO – Governor Newsom signed landmark legislation that requires diversity on corporate boards in California. The bill, AB 979, is joint authored by Assemblymembers Chris Holden, Cristina Garcia, and David Chiu, with Assemblymember Eloise Gomez Reyes and Senator Ben Hueso as principal co-author. The bill requires publicly held corporations headquartered in California to have at least one director from an underrepresented community by the close of 2021.

"The new law represents a big step forward for racial equity," said Assemblymember Chris Holden. "While some corporations were already leading the way to combat implicit bias, now, all of California's corporate boards will better reflect the diversity of our State. This is a win-win as ethnically diverse boards have shown to outperform those that lack diversity."

Soon after the social unrest following the killing of George Floyd, many corporations publicly stated their support for diversity and Black lives. Researchers, however, have pointed out that this public support for social justice movements often does not lead to long-term structural change in hiring and retention policies of a diverse staff and leadership. The current statistics are quite stark. The Deloitte Missing Pieces Report: The 2018 Board Diversity Census of Women and Minorities on Fortune 500 Boards found that out of 1,222 new board members of Fortune 100 companies, 77% were white.

"The lack of diversity on California's boards and upper level corporate positions is a challenge we urged corporations to address on their own during our time in the Legislature," said Assemblymember Christina Garcia. "However, it is clear we can no longer wait for corporations to figure it out on their own. By ensuring diversity on their boards, we know the corporations are more likely to both create opportunities for people of color and give them the support to thrive within that corporation. I'm excited this bill is signed and look forward to California continuing to lead the way in our fight for racial equity in "This measure recognizes that including the perspectives of underrepresented groups in leadership roles will result in more innovation, improved productivity, and better economic outcomes," said Assemblymember David Chiu, Chair of the Asian Pacific Islander Legislative Caucus. "I applaud Governor Newsom for signing this important bill to ensure corporate boards reflect the diversity of our state and are able to truly serve California's diverse population."

In addition to the 2021 benchmark, AB 979 also requires corporate boards to include two members from underrepresented communities for corporations with more than four members, while corporations with more than nine must have a minimum of three by 2022. The bill defines a director from an underrepresented community as an individual who self-identifies as Black, African American, Hispanic, Latino, Asian, Pacific Islander, Native American, Native Hawaiian, or Alaska Native, or who self-identifies as gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender.

Habitual Criminal Arrested Again

By George Ogden

IRWINDALE - Back on Sept. 4th, the Irwindale police responded to Our Lady of Guadalupe Mission Church, 16239 Arrow Hwy to find Noel Alejandro Rivera damaging the historical statues outside of that church. The statues were located in front of the church and when officers arrived, they found one of the statues ripped from its foundation and thrown into the roadway.

Once officers tried to approach and talk with the man, he became totally uncooperative and combative. He fought with police and was charged accordingly. At that time, he was taken into custody and was booked on suspicion of vandal-

Police are concerned that he will eventually hurt or kill someone, but there is nothing that they can do about it.

GoSGV Bike Share Program Launched in Baldwin Park

BALDWIN PARK - As one of the 31 cities in the Bike Share program, the City of Baldwin Park kicked-off the socially-distanced ribbon-cutting ceremony for the regional #GoSGV Bike Share Program launch Thursday morning, October 1.

The event included a brief bike ride to launch the new regional bike share program. The program is part of a collective effort led by the San Gabriel Valley Council of Governments (SGVCOG) GoSGV bike-share initiative. This regional program offers an accessible and affordable transportation option to residents of Baldwin Park and the San Gabriel Valley through shared-use electric-assist bicycles.

The GoSGV program and launch of the Gotcha bike-share services throughout the San Gabriel Valley align perfectly with the City's commitment to serving as a regionally recognized bike-friendly community.

This multi-city partnership compliments various city-wide key projects that continue to improve the mobility infrastructure of our community, including; the Maine Avenue Complete Streets Project and Streetscape Design Guideline Elements Project at major intersections, corridors, and entry points of the City.

Baldwin Park locations for the GoSGV Gotcha bike-share stations are now ready for public use at the following areas:

- 1. Performing Arts Center
- 2. Morgan Park
- 3. Badillo Ave & Skate Park
- 4. Baldwin Park Station5. City Hall
- 6. Francisquito Ave & Ramona Blvd
- 7. Ramona Blvd. & Foster Ave. 8. Frazier St & Francisquito
- 9. Maine Ave. & Los Angeles

Starting with an initial outlay of 45 bikes in the City of Baldwin

Park, #GoSGV will expand to 840 bikes stationed at bike share hubs in half of the 31 cities and unincorporated communities in the San Gabriel Valley.

Download the Gotcha Mobility App to rent pedal-assist bikes. It costs $2 to unlock and $0.10 per minute of ride time. These bikes offer an easy way to take short trips around town while avoiding traffic and reducing emissions from single-occupancy cars.

Electric-assist bicycles are similar to regular bikes but have pedal assist which help riders by boosting their pedaling efforts, making it easier to climb hills, travel longer distances and assist individuals with physical limitations that prevent extended cycling. GoSGV bikes can be returned to stations, or elsewhere for a small fee. Gotcha is responsible for ensuring that e-bikes are maintained at stations.

DRIVE-IN

HONORING OUR EMANATE HEALTH HEROES

COVINA – Observing distancing guidelines during a global pandemic, Emanate Health Foundation has "Reimagined" the 31st Annual Autumn Nocturne, October 17, by hosting a drivein event at Covina District Field to honor health care heroes. Proceeds from the event will support Emanate Health's COVID-19 Relief Fund. Register online at www.emanatehealth.org/foundation or call 626.814.2421.

"Since the beginning of the pandemic, Emanate Health Heroes have gone beyond the call of duty to treat COVID-19 patients demonstrating heartfelt compassion while many fought for their lives alone, except for the around-the-clock care that they received from their doctors, nurses and caregivers," said Emanate Health Foundation CEO Michelle Stoddard. "During these dark times, our health care heroes offered light and warm words to give our patients hope. We're recognizing our Emanate Health heroes for serving as rays of sunshine during these difficult times."

At the event, the Foundation will recognize Emanate Health Heroes through a drive-by tribute and a short program. Representatives from across the Emanate Health system will be in attendance.

"COVID-19 changed everything about how health care systems nationally delivered care to patients and forced hospitals to be creative in treating a virus that seemed like a moving target to doctors, nurses and staff," said Emanate Health Chief Executive Officer Rob Curry. "I cannot thank our staff enough for demonstrating bravery, ingenuity and compassion while caring for COVID-19 patients. It's that higher calling that drives our staff during this time and for that they have my highest level of respect and admiration."

Glendora Historical Society Gifts Glendora Woman's Club With 1914 Magazine featuring Woman's Club's New Clubhouse

By Joan Hallidy

GLENDORA - At the Glendora Woman's Club meeting on April 2, 2019, Glendora Historical Society's Executive Vice President Steven B Flowers, was a special guest. During his visit, he presented Woman's Club historian Rose Myers a gift of a magazine from 1914.

The November 1914 edition of The Countryside Magazine and Suburban Life that Flowers had found online, featured the Glendora Woman's Club and clubhouse.

The magazine article featured three photos, titled "A Woman's Club Small Clubhouse - Simple, Home like, Practical" that described the Glendora Woman's Club and the recent completion of its clubhouse in 1912.

The magazine article was written by Dora Summers Wamsley (Mrs. T Victor) who was a Woman's Club past president and charter member.

Additional history of the club's first club house in 1912 was available in the club's archives. Information included the club's first meeting in the newly completed clubhouse held on the November 5, 1912. Also, the Glendora clubhouse was located, as it is today, at 424 N. Glendora Avenue, present name of the street that had been re-named. Listed as the builder of the Glendora

Woman's Club's first clubhouse in 1912 was the R.M. Goebel Co. of Glendora, with plans prepared by TW Wamsley.

During the years since the Woman's Club's clubhouse was built, both major and minor improvements have been made to the building. In 1955-56, the entire clubhouse was remodeled, with John Harmon, Jr of Glendora as the architect. Over the years, the Glendora Woman's Club has continued its regular philanthropy work, and has also continued to service the community by maintaining a clubhouse.

For information about club memberships, special events or service projects, call 929-598-0554; for information about renting the clubhouse for an event or meeting, call Ryan at Cambria Catering at 626-335-7010. The clubhouse is located at 424 N. Glendora Avenue in Glendora.
