Date:	April 1, 2022
Project Title:	529 Cutter Way Residential Project
Project Location:	The City of Covina is in the East San Gabriel Valley region of Los Angeles County, approximately 20 miles northeast of downtown Los Angeles. The Project site is comprised of a single parcel (APN# 8434-013-010) totaling 2.24 acres located at the northwest corner of Cutter Way and San Bernardino Road and between Vincent Avenue and Lark Ellen Avenue.
Lead Agency:	City of Covina

Contact Person:	Mercy Lugo, Senior Planner City of Covina Community Development Department 125 East College Street Covina, California 91723 mlugo@covinaca.gov
Public Review

Period: April 1, 2022 - May 2, 2022

A public hearing to solicit public comments on the MND will be held before the Public Hearing: Covina Planning Commission on a date to be determined. An additional notice will be sent to advise of the date, place, and time of the public hearing when the hearing date is determined.

Project Description: The proposed Project includes a mixed-use development consisting of 63 residential units, 51 of which will be traditional multi-family units and 12 of which will be "Live/Work" units, located in twelve buildings on a 2.24-acre site in the City of Covina, California. The Project site is comprised of a single parcel (APN# 8434-013-010) currently zoned (M-1) "Light Manufacturing" and designated "General Industrial" in the City's General Plan. The development is proposed for two distinct uses - a traditional multi-family residential area and a mixed-use Live/Work area. Both will be incorporated adjacent to each other. The Project will also include a Planned Community Development (PCD) Overlay and Zone Change to M-1/PCD "Light Manufacturing/Planned Community Development" with specific development standards to allow for the Live/Work use. The proposed units will be arranged into building blocks that will vary in height and number of stories (1 to 4 stories), with taller units located towards the rear of the property and decreasing in height as they reach the street property lines. Each proposed building will have varying heights depending on the types of units in each building block. While each building will have varying levels of building blocks, each building with have a maximum number of stories/height of either 3 stories/35-feet or 4 stories/45-feet. The floor area sizes for the dwelling units are planned to range from 650 square feet for the one-bedroom units to over 1,200 square feet for the three-bedroom units

The Live/Work units will be combination units composed of dwelling space on the upper floors and work space on the ground floor connected by an interior staircase. Approximately half of the floor space for each Live/Work Unit will be dedicated toward residential use and the other half dedicated toward small-scale industrial use. The building blocks are also staggered slightly from each other in order to provide views and light source for all tenants. This is also designed to provide visual interest to the site. Structures are primarily oriented north to south to best capture solar energy and natural lighting for energy conservation. An outdoor courtyard with amenities will be centrally-located within the property and a community center will be incorporated into this area. Stairs with ADA provisions will also be provided from the public right-of-way to the courtyard. The Project will also include associated landscaping and drainage improvements as well as surface parking and a subterranean parking garage. The Project site contains a single-family home of approximately 2,647 square feet that was built in 1990. The single-family home is currently used as a temporary meeting place for the Faith Community Church of Covina and is not currently utilized by any persons as a residence.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of the estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250.
